came to be operating as a house of assignation
and apparently operating as a house of ill-fame.
We were admitted into a front parlour by a woman who I and D introduced to me as
"Mrs. North."

Mrs. North told me that she could bring in women at any time for illicit purposes, and that she would rent rooms to live, naming the prices at $300 for a short time, and $500 for all night.

I heard Mrs. North tell D and I that at any time he wanted a woman for immoral purposes, she could find one for that type of a woman, and mentioned the price at $500 for the woman, and $500 for the use of the room.

Saw two apparently operating as a disorderly house. After being seated and served with a round of drinks, we saw a woman in company with an escort sitting at a table nearby. The woman entered into a platation with Mr D, whereupon she had two dances with him.

I did not hear any solicitation to prostitution mentioned, or did I hear a price mentioned, but in every indication the woman in all appearances appeared to be a prostitute.

I saw intramurality of patrons and very suggestive dancing.

I came to the residence as a house of assignation. After I went in I found a man there. We proceeded to the third floor.

After ringing bell a woman came down stairs, she opened the door and admitted me into hall-way, who said her name was "Miss Anna Bell," and that she was the keeper of the flat on the 2nd floor.

Miss Bell told me that she was sorry she could not let me come into her flat, owing to the reason that some of the roommates were in, and also that she had to be very careful at night on account that the police were watching her.

Miss Bell wanted me to come up any afternoon with a woman for illicit purposes.

See note of operating as a house of ill-fame.

I was admitted into a middle bedroom by a colored maid, who said she was acting as a burner, while Mr. Jone was out shopping.

The maid called in a woman who said she had obtained a witness against him on 1874. She was out with Mr. Jone, who said her name was “Irma.”

Some solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $500. She said “Just go to bed.”

During my visit, Mr. D. remained in observation at a book and New Bridge.
came to be a haven of ill fame.

After I had made the appointment by telephone, we proceeded to the address and were admitted into a middle bedroom by a woman who said her name was "Maria" and that she was the daughter of the keeper, and acting as keeper, while the mother was out.

Some other woman came in who we met and obtained personal evidence against one 3/14/19, who said her name was "Tirilla." We were solicited to buy drinking and were served by Tirilla with a round of "Potter's Rose," for which a charge of $1.25 was made and the money paid to Maria.

I continued on the other side.

On my return, I was solicited to produce a bond for the sum of $500, to sell named the price to me, and said, "let us go to bed for a good term."

I was told that the two children
whom I saw here on my previous visit, Manu told us, that the little girl about 5 years old was her daughter, and that the boy about 13 years old was her brother.

Poem - Demote

To come to be operating as a house of ill-fame. We were admitted into a front bedroom by a woman who we knew as Rose. Rose solicited both of us to prostitution for the sum of $2.00, she said, "let us go to bed." Rose solicited me to buy drinks, but we did not purchase any. Rose told me that Tine Hunter, formerly of 1126 W. Clark St. 2nd floor, was the operator of this place.

2nd floor and I just met Rose at 1126 W. Clark 2nd floor at which place we obtained money against him, and also pawned a frozen potato and found this second later account.

"No. 0" obtained money against this place 4/12/20.
