introduced Miss B.
we were joined by another woman who Miss Andrews introduced to us as "Mora," the keeper of this place.
we were both solicited to prostitution
by these women; I was solicited at Miss Andrews, she said, "Why don't you stay and go to bed?"
when I asked her what she charged,
she replied, "I don't go to bed for charity, and it will cost you enough, and I will tell you the price when we get in bed."
I heard from a silent witness to prostitution but I did not have a price mentioned.

I met Miss Andrew at the Police House, 3037 No. Clark St. on 3/22/19, and on that occasion she gave me her telephone number and told me to call her for appointment, and that I could come up to her place, but to be careful as every time she arranged for a party, she would get herself in trouble with the police.

We also met Miss Andrew at the Belvedere Cafe, 838 N. Clark St. the morning we went into the Police House in company with a different man from that she went with at the Police House.

Miss Andrew told me that she had picked up several men on that particular evening.

power to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

We were forced to come in by a woman aged about 35 years, who appeared to be the proprietor.

The woman acted as hostess of a soft drink place, apparently also managing a saloon, which had it's linens stained.

The woman solicited me to buy drinks and we were served by her with 1 glass of grape juice and 1 glass of white soda for which she charged me 60c.

The woman solicited me to prostitution. She said, "do you boys want to see a nice girl, and go to bed for a kiss."

She then motioned towards and into a rear room (apparently a dining room)

where we met two women about 50 years old, who solicited both of me to prostitution for the sum of $20. They said, 'right this way boy, and let's go to bed.'

The woman who solicited me, procured a pan of water, and washed me into a slightly used room (located in center of 1st floor on the north side of building).

This room contained an old dresser and iron bed, which being filthy with dirt, we were unable to obtain the names of these women.

We also saw a police officer in uniform enter, and remained only a moment; the Officer told me that we did not have to prove the officer, so he took care of him.

Investigation

We were admitted into a front room by a woman who introduced to us as "Grace West." During our stay, this woman related to us that she lives at this place alone and pays $5.00 a month rent and that the live men company, who stay up to 4:00 A.M.,

She poured me a glass of whisky while she took a drink herself, but I would not make a charge for same.

She also told me that she has been brought to her by intimate men friends and invited me to come back but to first phone her for appointment.

We were unable to obtain a solicitor for prostitution, so am I able to say whether, absent photographic evidence, whether or not she is a prostitute.

Mabler Hall gave me her telephone number (attached) at Humwood 7096, and told me that she had a fuss, and to phone her for an appointment to visit her.

I supposed this number and found that Mabler Hall lives there, at 4609 Barwell Ave.

For further particulars concerning this woman Mable, see E.S. report on 7/24/18, and 8/7/18.

Mabler Hall told me that she worked at this place as an entertainer, and we did not know what to do with her. We went to the West in this case, and we send our returning mail with these women.

We saw intertwining of patrons, and also saw Fred Rotthut, the proprietor flip through, and he could not help.

Nora Day. Myself.
From Andrew Cantore.

[Paragraph]

Chorea came to this officering as a house of ill-fame. I was admitted into hell-way by a woman who I know as Nora Day. This woman is the shaper of the place.

In the hell-way, I was greeted by another woman who I know as Miss Lendroux, and who ushered me into a front bar room.

This woman solicited me to prostitution. She said, "Why don't you stay for a good time," when I asked her what it would cost me. She replied, "I am short of money and can always use $5 and 10 dollars."

The people in the house were 16 years old.

And D. and I obtained evidence against this firm on 4/10/19. For further particulars per E.S. report on that date.

We were admitted into dining room by a woman who we know as Dinner Hall

Dinner Hall introduced to us as "Anna, and that Anna was a call woman a neighbor.

Dinner Hall solicited me to buy drinks;
we were served by her with 3 rounds

for which Dinner Hall charged me $1.00 around.
We were both solicited to prostitution
for the sum of $5.00 plus $2.00 for room rent.

Just solicited by Dinner Hall, she said

"I am sick to night so come look in a few days, and we will have a good time."

I heard Miller Hall solicit me to prostitution with Anna, she said "why don't you take her, and go to bed she will that you all right."

We first met Miller Hall on 4/17/19, at One West place, a Saloon and Cafe located at 539 So State St, and on that occasion she solicited me to prostitution and gave me her telephone number and told me to phone her for an appointment.

Miller Hall told me that she was affiliated with politicians, and that an Alderman was visiting her once a week, who was paying her rent, and that she had to please him.

The further particulars concerning this woman Miller Hall, Dr. E.P. report on 4/17/19 on 539 So State St.

Frank Durling asked, "Why don't we go to bed?" I said, "You are right. We should go to bed now."

When I arrived, there were two women standing by another woman. They were talking about getting ready to eat dinner. It seems they were preparing a feast for the evening.

The women were discussing the menu and the preparation of the dishes. They were busy chopping vegetables and arranging the table settings.

I asked, "What are you cooking for dinner?" They replied, "We are making a delicious stew with vegetables and meat."

I said, "That sounds wonderful. I am sure we will all enjoy it."

The women continued to prepare the meal, and I helped them with the side dishes.

After the meal, we sat around the table and talked about our day. The conversation was lively, and everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves.

The evening ended with dessert and a game of cards. It was a fun and memorable evening spent with friends.

Convinced of roving as a disorderly saloon.

After taking plate in cafe, two unaccompanied women from other tables came over and took plate with us.

One of the women I knew as Estella to whom I introduced to Mr. D. and the other woman said her name was "Hattie."

After being poured with drinks, both of these women solicited me to prostitution. Hattie solicited Mr. D. to prostitution for $5.00, while Estella solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $50.00 plus $2.00 for room and board. She said, "let us go over to the Imperial Hotel for a good jog." We as intended. See Estella later.

with a man through the main entrance and upon her return, she came over to our table and told me, that the man she left with, were her tricks, and that she had taken him over to the Imperial Hotel.

Estella was very urgent for me to go to the above mentioned hotel with her, and often I had made my excuse, she immediately left our table, and took seat at another table, with a man.

I asked one of other prostitute here by the name of Fiona, who was in company with a man.

I first met Estella and Fiona on 5/9/19,
and on that occasion I obtained evidence against both of them at the above mentioned address.

Come to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

We were admitted into a front bedroom by a woman, who introduced us to one of "Billy," and we were soon joined by another woman, who introduced us to another man, "Mr. Tyler."

"Billy" solicited both of us to prostitution for the sum of $500 plus $200 for rooming. John said, "Let us go to bed."

Mrs. Tyler told us that she would room to unmarried couples, and solicited us to bring our women, and made us a present of $200 for the use of the room.

Mrs. Tyler also wanted to call a woman for Div-D for illicit purposes.

Mr. D., and one of the women I recognized as Mrs. D., and the other woman I had introduced to me as Maud Wilkerson.

Soon another woman entered who took a seat in a separate booth and who beckoned for Mrs. D. to take a seat with her. He did so.

After being served with drinks, Mrs. D. solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $5.00 plus $2.00 for room rent and gave me her phone number: Fairfield 6654, and told me to call her for an appointment, and that she would

I met him, and took him to McDonald & Wilkinso's shop, who has a flat on the sixth floor.

I was also introduced by an unknown man to a woman by the name of Daisy, who was in company with another woman.

This proved to be a regular place for prostitution, and where they harbored their trade.

2 unregistered women

A man was operating as a disorderly saloon.
After taking pride in café, an unregistered woman smiled and beckoned for me to take pride with her.

I did so, and the woman said her name was "Isaiah".
After being served with drinks, the woman solicited me for prostitution for the sum of $500; she said, "call me up, and we will have a very pretty time of my house.

Isaiah gave me her address and phone number, Douglas St. 5658 (attached), and told me to phone her for an appointment.
I confided the matter, and found some to be correct.
I saw an unregistered woman, one whom
