Same to be operating as an assignation house.

I first visited the saloon behind and purchased beer. I asked "Frank" the bartender whether anything was "doing" upstairs. He said he didn't know but said he could tell by asking. I went up and was met by a gray haired man with glasses; medium height and had bottles 2 30 years old. I asked where the girls were. He said he had none now but that he could have fixed me up had I been there half an hour before. He told me to go across the street in the rear room of the saloon at the south west corner of Cottage Grove and 38th St. and pick one up. He said he could come up to the hotel and he would change me $1 for a room. He told me if I couldn't find a girl in the saloon to pick one up off the 15th St. and bring hilly up.

8:45 P.M.

Same to be operating as a house of ill fame.
I was met at the door by a young man (colored).
He told me they had two colored girls that were "did business." He said they had gone out to a show and wouldn't be back till after 10 P.M. He said the one who lived there was only 18 years old; that she was there all the time and that she could come anytime and she would be glad to see me. He said she charged $1 for regular intercourse. The other girl, he said, does not live there, but is there daily.

Same to be operating as a house of assignation. I first visited the saloon and cavalier downstairs. In the cavalier sat one man with two girls drinking. The negro waiter refused to serve me alone and stated that there were no girls there. The bartender told me they didn't serve anyone in the cavalier unless accompanied by a person of the opposite sex. I went upstairs. A slight, shrewd, smooth-faced dark-haired young jew answering to the name of "Abey" in charge. He said they had no girls there but if I wanted to get one of the street girls in a room they would bring me up. A loose-leaf register was on the desk.

I went into the saloon and asked the bartender. He said the Saloon was empty. The bartender told me he did not permit men-serviced women to frequent the place.

The whole building is being altered by carpenters.

I went upstairs and was met by a jolly big, smooth-faced man who said his name was Billy McCarthy. He said the hotel was run by a woman and was not under the same management as the Saloon downstairs.

He told me they did not keep girls but said I could probably get one if I asked later in the cabaret downstairs. He said I could bring the girl up and he would rent me a room in the back and tell the woman "Billy" sent me. He showed me down the rear open stairway upstairs, and said I could bring the girl. The stairway is very close to the rear entrance of the Cabaret.

same to be operating as a house of ill fame, I was admitted by a gray haired woman who showed me into the parlors. I asked for "Lorraine" and in a moment a stout, slight brown haired woman came in. She asked how I came to come there and in a moment left the parlor. Immediately a very slight girl with brown hair came into the parlor. She said his name was Wanda but later told me it was Maxine. She solicited me to buy her. The gray haired woman served us with 2 bottles of soda water for which she charged $2 which I paid. Maxine solicited me to prostitution and said the price would be $10, and that for that sum I could stay all night and she would also "finish" me. She said she would charge me $20 to stay all night, 5 cigs at 40¢ each.

Served the waiter if I could get a dancer & she brought us 2 girls, one of them giving name of Marie Kelsey, asked us to buy drinks which we did. Marie Kelsey & I thanked after which she ordered another round of drinks which we paid for. She also ordered 1 box of cigarettes & asked me for 1.00 for good luck. She insisted on this 1.00 which I refused to give her. Marie told me that there was 16 other girls working like themselves there from 5 to 5 every night & she was tired of the job on account of the long hours & small pay. Both girls then ordered another round of drinks which we paid for.

There was about 30 men & women sitting at tables drinking. Most of the women seemed to be working there. Between dances girls would walk around dance floor singing. Men at tables tossed council at them. The girls we were with asked us to give the singers some money.

He said he is operating as a house of ill-fame and a house of assignation.

We were ushered into office on the second floor by a white man who said his name was Charles Moffat, and that he was the clerk.

He said that May was busy upstairs, and asked us to wait, also that he expected Pearl to come in any time then.

Two men were waiting in the office for a trick. Charles Moffat said: A man came down from upstairs and the clerk sent one of the waiting men up, and when he came down the clerk sent investigator Rup.

The clerk said that the girls charged $2.00 helping 1.00 for themselves and $1.20 would go to the boss.

Monday night August 6 - 1917
in Company with Investigators Rand & S.

We saw in rear room of Green & Kennedy's Saloon, 2673 West Madison St. at 9:15 PM. a uniformed soldier sitting at a table with 2 girls. The bartender served them with 2 bottles of beer & a glass of liquid which looked like ginger ale. From a telephone booth I noticed that a half filled glass of beer & a partly filled bottle of beer was directly in front of the soldier.

We were admitted by Mrs. Luke and shown into the kitchen, where we found a soldier (by special report). This was No 1519 Ogden Ave.

When I asked where all the girls were, she said she would go out and get them, which she did and brought back a girl who said her name was Ida Fore and said her name was Nathan.

Both of these girls and Mrs. Luke showed us next door (No 1521 Ogden Ave) to top floor where both girls solicited us back to prostitution for the price of 200 for themselves and 100 for the room for each of us.

A small boy who Mrs. Luke said was her 8 year old son was in the kitchen of No 1519 Ogden Ave.

Thursday, August 9th, 1917.
From 9:15 PM to 9:45 PM.

After being admitted to kitchen of 1519 Ogden Ave., which we found to be a house of ill-fame, run by Mrs. Luke; we found a uniformed soldier who said his name was Frank O'Brien attached to Supply Co of the First Infantry.

On the table which he was sitting at, I noticed a half filled bottle of beer and a glass which showed evidence of just being emptied of beer. There was no doubt, by the smell of his breath and his talk that the soldier was under the influence of liquor.

He wanted us to be on the lookout while Mrs. Luke was out, so that he could rob a bedroom off the kitchen of money which he thought was in there.

While being seated at a table, we noticed 2 soldiers and one civilian being served with drinks at the next table to ours. Investigator R made mention that he saw one of the soldiers take and drink a glass of liquor which was placed before the civilian by the waiter. Investigator Rbeckoned to the soldier whom he saw take the drink. It came to our table which he did. He acknowledged taking the drink which he said was bourbon whiskey. He said that there was nothing toxic that he could get all he wanted from that way. He wanted to give money to R to buy him a quart of cocktails & give it to him in the toilet room, which R refused to do. This soldier said his name was Ackerman & that he was a lieutenant attached to Headquarters Co 1st Artillery.

R & S.

Came to Vera's Gambling House.

Approaching this place alone I noticed five men who appeared to be lookouts. Standing in front of the store I entered the place without being stopped and walked to the rear where I found about 15 men around a table watching a few men shooting craps. I stood there about 20 minutes. The average game took about 1 minute to be played, the numbers of players were from 2 to 5 men and the amounts played by each man in each game ran from .04 to .10.

A Jewish looking man about 38 years old, about 150 lbs weight, who wore dark trouser, no coat, straw sailor hat, pink soft shirt with three initials embroidered in red under pocket on left side, held a large roll of paper money, and would make change for the players. He would settle disputes among the players, kept a sharp lookout on the front entrance, and in general seemed to be in charge.

About 10 minutes after I entered and while standing watching the players,
I noticed a tall, slim, blond man about 30 years old walk up to one of the players who played in all the games, and whisper in his ear. This player immediately started to swear, saying that he just got a tip that the place was going to be pulled. He hurried over to the Jewish looking man who seemed to be in charge, and told him to have his lookouts on the job.
about 5 minutes later I heard a hand clap, and some one say "break", the game immediately stopped, some of the men walked to the front, others sat down at table near by. I walked to the front & saw 2 civilians enter, who by their looks appeared to be detectives. Both were about 6 foot tall & weighed about 175 lbs. One drew a sailor straw hat & the other a cloth cap. I heard them say 'Hello' fellows, & a humpbacked man who stood behind cigar counter held out a lot of cigars to them & they both took one & left. Immediately after the game was resumed.

While I sat at one of the 10 tables a young fellow came up to me, & wanted to stand if I want to play Fantan with him which I refused to do.

I heard another man ask 3 men if any one of them wanted to play a $2.50 freeze out game of "rummy". No one wanted to play with him. The man who wanted me to (continued on other side)
