play with, soon sat down at one of the tables, and played "Rummy" with a man, who after each game played put a nickel in the chair he was sitting in; this man seemed to be winning most of the games. The player who lost paid according to the spots of each card.

As I left this place I noticed two men follow me up to 2nd street. I went into the saloon on this corner and they followed me in there and stood behind of me while I had a drink. They soon left and walked back and stood in front of the gambling place. I noticed 9 men who appears to be lookouts.

S. S.

While in the gambling place I noticed 2 men got packages of cigarettes which they did not pay for.

Pram to be operating as a disorderly dance hall.

After paying $25 admittance fee I entered dance hall & was met by a man dressed as a waiter (whom I saw meet most of the people entering) he asked me if I wanted a nice girl, I said yes, he then clapped his hands, told me to follow him which I did reaching left rear corner. Waiter No. 7 & a girl dressed in white met me. They showed me to a table. The girl said her name was Pearl Hirth. She told the waiter not to go away as she wanted a drink. The waiter then solicited both of us to drink. The girl ordered a "grenadine" highball and I ordered a bourbon highball which we were served with which I paid 80¢ for. In about 5 minutes the girl ordered another round of the same drinks which I paid for. We then had a dance. Returning to our table we found two uniformed soldiers sitting there. They refused to move and from their language they both appeared to be drunk. The girl then showed me to a table, which was located in rear of the hall which part is elevated about 4 feet above the main dance hall floor. This is a flight of about 7 steps leading to this section, and it accommodates about 7 tables.

Waiter No. 3 came up to me and solicited me to buy drinks. Pearl ordered a "grenadine" highball which she got, and I ordered a bottle of beer but was served with a whiskey ginger ale highball. I asked the waiter why he didn't bring me the bottle of beer and he said he made a mistake.

The girl and I had 11 dances and between them had 4 sets of drinks.

She drank "grenadine" highballs; and I got 3 whiskey highballs and one glass of beer which I paid for. I knocked over 2 of the highballs and the glass of beer.

Pearl then wanted me to give her $5.00. I asked her what for, and she said for taking up her time. I said I didn't think I should because I did not ask for her company. She said I had a Hell of a lot of nerve and wanted to know if I thought she was a faker. She then said she only got $10.00 a week working there and had to get other money in order to live. She said if I didn't give her at least a dollar there would be trouble. She got so abusive I gave her a dollar.

When served with the last set of drinks I gave the waiter a two-dollar bill; he gave me back 20¢. I told him he had made a mistake, he said I only gave him a one dollar bill, and said if I did like the service to get out. I then left at being 2:55 a.m.

I counted when I entered about 2:50
people and when I left about 100 people
I saw 9 uniformed soldiers of which 1 was a Captain, 2 were Lieutenants 2 were sergeants + 4 who looked like private I saw the Captain + Lieutenant drinking what looked to me to be whiskey high balls.
I saw 6 girls who appeared to me to be under 18 years of age.
One girl who was dancing dressed in green, acted as tho she was drunk. During one dance her right shoulder strap slipped down exposing her right breast, the man she was dancing with held her tightly against himself + she made no effort during the entire dance to cover herself.
Between each dance girls would walk around dance floor singing, the people sitting around at tables would toss coins to them. Pearl insisted that I should give them some money. I tossed out a quarter The drinks I saw the people served with appeared to be whiskey high balls + glasses of beer most of the people seemed to be drunk

We were met in hall of second floor by man who said his name was Jacob.

When I asked him where all the girls were he led us to a front bedroom facing on Austin Ave.

A young brown haired girl about 35 years old talked to Jacob with the door partly opened.

The girl told Mr. V. & myself that she had to go to a show where she worked but to call back next day between 12-2300 M + that she would treat us right. We were unable to find out what price she would charge.

Alone I entered room 22 at head of stairs which was open, & which is used as a sitting room, when I found a heavy set blonde woman about 35 years old, who said her name was Pearl. She said that she was the night clerk from 12 midnight to 6 a.m. & that she lived at the hotel. She solicited me to prostitution, asking 30. After putting 2 nickels in a music box I left, saying that I would bring back a friend soon.

I returned with investigator S. I heard her solicit him to prostitution for the room of 200 x 100 for 3 hours.

The girl would not tell me her name but said that I could call her May.

The waiter said his name was Mike, his badge number was 6. He seemed about 35 years old, 5 ft 6 in. - 135 lbs. His hair was dark & he had a scar on his left jaw.

We were served with 7 rounds of the same drinks together with 1 package of Pall Mall Cigarettes.

I tasted the girl's propriety, which seemed to me to be just sweetened water. After drinking my first highball I told the waiter to make my drinks stronger.

The rest of my drinks were very strong whisky highballs.

I was watched constantly by the head waiter, our waiter and by a waiter who had charge of three tables next to ours. I was followed by a waiter when I went to the toilet.

The girl said that she had worked there for 1 year & 2 months. At 2:30 am she excused himself and was away.

11 minutes after she cam back she was very sullen, refused to talk, and would not dance. I offered her $1.00 if she would go to the other end of hall & buy me a packet of Camel Cigarettes. She said she would, but did not after I gave her the money. It was my intention to confiscate my drink while she was away.

When I entered the hall there was about 140 people, & when I left about 35 more appeared. Highballs & glasses of beer were the only drinks I saw served.

When I entered I also noticed a second lieutenant drinking what appeared to be highballs. He left at 3:20 a.m., & from his walk, and his expression, he appeared to be drunk.

I left at 4:30 a.m. & Mel Investigates 8 V at 7:00 So. We walked north 2 blocks, where I stopped and threw up into a tin can. We arrived at the spread. I poured the contents of my can thru a handkerchief into a bottle. This bottle I sealed & labeled.

During the time I was in her (2:15 a.m to 4:30 a.m) we were served with 7 rounds of drinks. Each drink served to me contained whiskey. I tasted the girl's drink once and it tasted to me to be just sweetened water.

We were told by a woman, about 50 years old, gray hair, medium build, who said her name was Kate Bell, that she did not keep girls there, but that she would furnish us with a room any time we wanted to take a girl up there.

She gave us her telephone number and said that it would be better for us to call her up first, whenever we wanted a room.

We were admitted by a colored woman, who on a previous visit told me her name was Marguerite. She ushered us into a front parlor, where we found another colored woman who said her name was Mandy Cone. Marguerite solicited us both to prostitution, and at the command of Mandy, she showed investigator S. into a bedroom in the rear of the flat, facing west; I followed immediately and heard Marguerite again solicit S. to prostitution for the sum of $1.00.

She then led us out of the flat through the rear entrance.
