seems to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

We met in hallway of 2nd floor, a man who said he was the day clerk. I asked him where Mary was. He unlocked the office door, told us to go in and sit down, and that he would go and find Mary.

While he was gone a woman who
on a previous visit told me her name was Mary, solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $2.00 this in the presence of the clerk.

Same to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

We met a man on stairway leading to second floor, whom I in V. Called Sherman.

Sherman showed us into first room north of the head of stairway and introduced us to a girl he called Marie.

Marie showed us to the 3rd floor, when I heard her solicit involvement in prostitution for the sum of $150.

Another girl who we met on 3rd floor, who said her name was Helen solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $150.

While in saloon at 5:15 PM the man tending bar whom we were told was the proprietor told us to come back at about 8:00 PM & he would have a couple of nice girls for us.

We returned at 7:25 PM and while at the bar a heavy set woman who said her name was Ruth called in and to the rear room. I followed & the 3 of us sat at a table, and we were served with a round of drinks, for which (Continued on other side)
At 8 P.M., women came in, one sat at our table who said her name was Constance. We were served with another round of drinks for which Investigator X paid 60¢.

Both women (Ruth and Constance) suggested us to prostitution for the sum of 50¢ for themselves and 10¢ extra for a room for each of us offering to take us to the rooms upstairs or a place over on 32nd Street.

Constance told me that the other Vindicator girl she came in with was her ex-wife.

September 11st 1917 - In Company with

We visited the following places from 8:00 PM to 10:30 PM.

At 8:10 - Bar room of North Shore Inn 6358
Broadway, conditions good.

8:20 to 8:25 - Both sides of Broadway between Devon & Rosemont, conditions good.

8:25 to 8:45 - Bar room & Cabaret - Thursday Inn
6359 Broadway, conditions good, few people present.

8:45 to 9:45 - Cabaret, Broadway Inn - 6346
Broadway. About 40 couples present drinking beer & highballs. They were mostly of the young sporting element. Of 15 couples dancing 9 girls appeared under 18 years old. One couple of which the girl appeared under 18 years old danced in such a suggestive manner that they had the attention of most of the people seated, at intervals during the dance her partner would kiss her.

Mrs M. O. Drach an eight grade public school teacher, who was present with her husband, stopped and said to me as she was going out: "That certainly is a case for Summer and Westbrook." She also spoke to the head waiter, who said his name was Jack Slade. He told me about the dancing, saying that he ought to stop such dancing. I said he should, but he did not, and we saw the same couple dancing 2 more dances each one more suggestive than the others.

9:15 to 10:15 Both sides of Broadway between 7th and 8th. Women who appeared to be prostitutes passed by.

10:15 to 10:50 Cabaret Broadway Inn, 1346 Broadway. About 60 couples present, all of the sporting element. A great number of the girls appeared to be under 18 years old.

The dancing was very suggestive.

The door man told us that Saturdaynight was the big night that woman hustled on the street especially after the Firbank's theatre at 6:30 let out about 10:30. He said some of the girls who hustled were 14 and 16 years old.

I asked him if the police arrested the woman who said "No things are safe and clear." (Continued on Page 3)
While I was talking to him a woman passed at intervals, he pointed to them and said that they were hustling.

At 10:55 policemen, S. A. 106 entered saloon at 6343 Broadway and drank beer at the bar (see special report).

We were admitted by a woman who saw her name was Sallie Modo, she served us with 3 bottles of Edelweiss Beer for which I paid 75¢, and solicited us both to prostitution for the sum of $2.00.

She showed us a blank book, which listed names of men, with prices opposite each name, which she said was her account book, of her customers.

She wrote her name and address on a slip of paper & gave it to V. 75¢
Walking west on Madison st. from Wood st., a few minutes before 10 o'clock, I noticed 2 men walking ahead of us who looked suspicious, as tho' they might be lookouts. When we reached Monroe st. the 2 men walked south. I told Mr. V to watch them while I went into the saloon on the corner which is 1825 W Madison.

As soon as I entered a man about 30 years old drew a gun and ordered all hands up, threatening the first man who moved with death. He leaped up to me and threw the coat I had on my arm on the floor and backed me up against the wall while he held his gun against my stomach. He ordered one of the bartenders to empty the cash register, and the other bartender along with me.

The holdup man kept pointing his gun at the three of us, saying that he would kill the first "$10 or $2" whom
It took the bartender about 10 minutes to empty the register; he did it very slowly, with one hand. He told the man he kept saying that if he didn't hurry he would kill him.

In about 5 minutes a small man about 50 years old came in, he was ordered to hold up his hands and come along side of me.

Before leaving the holdup man searched me for a gun and then ordered all of us into a back room, saying that he would kill the first man who came out.

In a few moments I ran out the front door, and down to wood street where I sent in the call to the police from the patrol box. The police told me that the wagon was on the way to Madison + Monroe. At this moment I heard the shots.

I went back to the saloon, in a few moments the wagon came.
The police asked me my name and address, which I gave as Sydney Small 4455 West End Ave, also details which I gave.

Another load of police arrived from the Warren Ave station, among them was Sgt. Sullivan who had seen me at the First Deputy's office. He told the rest that I was working at the Westbrook's office, they wanted to know if I did, and I told them that Sgt. Sullivan ought to know.

Irv. V. Soon came back and told the police what he saw and did. They asked me who he was and I told them that he was working with me.

We left at 10:40 pm walked a few blocks west then went home.

When talking to the First Deputy Sept. last Friday September 14th 1917, regarding the holdup of Baloon at 1825 W. Madison St. Thursday September 13th 1917, I told him that one of the detectives who had seen me at his office a number of times, told the other policemen present that I was from Westbrook's office, and that I did not deny the fact, for the reason that I did not want to reveal my identity.

I explained to the First Deputy that my reason for telling him the exact facts was that I did not want him to think that I was taking advantage of friendship or trying to assume something which I should not.

He said it was alright to have acted the way I did. I asked him if I should use my own judgement again in any other emergency, and he said that it would be alright for me to do so.

While in conversation with these girls they told us the following:

That the articles recently published in the papers regarding Tiffelby were absolutely true.

They had both worked as dance instructors for 10 months, prior to 1 month ago, when they were both fired for going out and meeting tricks.

Bobby said that she had lived those 10 months with Ed Bloom, and that he always had "easy ones" ushered to her by Frank, Mars the floor manger. That each night as she would undress before Ed Bloom and take out rolls of bills from her stocking, he would say that she was a wonder.

That all the girls solicited drinks, and got as much money from the patrons as they could.

That all the girls were instructed to order soft drinks only, they often drank the alcoholic drinks of the patrons.

That the girls did make dates for "tricks" with the patrons and meet them after working hours.

That alcoholic drinks were served after hours at Tiffelby.

Louis Jameson then introduced both of us to a young woman whom she said was "Babe" her daughter. In the conversation between Louis Jameson and inv. R., Louis Jameson said that she and her party met inv. R. and Kitty coming out of the Ellis, and that all of them (Louis Jameson, her party and inv. R. and Kitty) went to the Drexel, from there went to Colosimo's for something to eat, and then to Friedberg's Hall. Louis Jameson then said that the entire party were served with alcoholic drinks at both Colosimo's and Friedberg's after hours. She also said that all the published in the papers recently about Colosimo's & Friedberg's was absolutely true.

Everything was quiet.

In the morning inv. R told me that during the night he heard women quarreling in the hall outside our room.

The majority of the women patrons were drinking from opaque glasses. What appeared to me to be ginger ale highballs. The women had all the earmarks of being prostitutes. One young woman was drunk.

The dancing was very suggestive. A heavy set man about 55 years old dressed in a gray suit, sitting at the door, was never told by a warden was Ed. Collins.

A woman who we met talking to a man in the corner of 23rd & Prairie, and who came in later & sat at our table, ordered a "Virginia Dare" I tasted it & found it to contain whiskey. She solicited me to prostitute for the sum of $50 & $200 for the room. She said that she could get another girl for me. A
