The entrance to the above place is east of the saloon on the first floor, and it is also the entrance to the Cabaret in the rear.

Upon reaching the hallway of the second floor, we saw a woman called Tutty take bottles of beer from a dummy cabinet which is located at the south end of the hallway. Just at this time a woman called Han, she took the beer to the rear.

I heard a man & a woman talking in a front room.

Walking to an annex, east on the same floor we saw a man in a looking-man suit sitting at a table with a woman in a pink hose dress.

Tutty returned & told us that she didn't have any girls.

Upon reaching the first floor Inv. G. tried the door leading to the Cabaret and found it locked.

The saloon was closed and dark.
and on account of a heavy glass partition about a foot from the window we were unable to see inside.

We went about the last to leave

After we were served with a round of drinks, Charley, the floor manager came over and shook hands with us. I told him that I would certainly enjoy a dance. He pointed over at a woman who was drinking with two men, saying that he knew her, and that she was a "Hooker" from 31st St., and that he would speak to her and fix me up with a dance.

In a few moments the woman referred to came up to our table. While I was dancing with him she gave me her name and address (Miss Brown, 746 E. 45th St. Fl. 18. Phone Brand 925) telling me to be sure and call on her, that she had a couple of nice girls with her, and that she would be treated right.

Charley returned to our table and pointed out two men whom he said were from "Central Office." One of them whose name Charley said was "Corry" had a drink, and when she was in a placed the check on his table Charley went over, wrote something on it and gave it back to the waiter.

At one o'clock just as the people were leaving, investigator I called Charley over & pointing to a man about 5 ft 7 1/2 in., black curly hair, & wearing eye glasses, asked him who his was. Charley said he was Chonzie the "Chief." Investigator I then said "I thought Ed Week was the boss." Charley replied in a whisper "he is the head of the Alexander crew."

We then asked him if we could get a drink (at being 10:35 am) & he said he couldn't serve us as it was after hours. He then told us that if we come around Sunday that he would fix us up with all the drinks we wanted.

I told him that I was cold, I wanted a shot of booze. He said he would get it for me but that it would have to be made up in a ginger ale highball. All of us then ordered gingerale highballs. In a few minutes a heavy set colored water bottle number 8 brought up 4 small capped bottles labeled "supreme quality." He opened the bottles and served us. Between the time we entered and left which was 9:25 to 10:20 PM we were served with 8 gingerale highballs. I tasted all the drinks served and found them to contain whiskey.

I confiscated one of my drinks. I also saw investigators & V confiscated their drinks.

The sailors were then served with gave Myrle a dollar bill.

As we were leaving Myrle told us that 2 or 3 people had told him the Inv S. denied it strongly & gave to from Myrle's hand tore it up saying that he would handle him (meaning

We then made our exit.
