Thursday

Sept. 27th 1917

11 W. Huron St.

At about 4:45 P.M. I arrived at the above place and saw Mrs. Gardner in the basement, furnace room, with a short, stout woman and 2 men.

They were all sitting at a table talking.

Mrs. Gardner and myself went to the 1st floor, where she wrote out a receipt for 75¢ for my first night’s lodging.

I then left, and at about 9:30 P.M. arrived here again.

I saw a small child of about 7 years old in the sitting room. She told me that mamma had gone out.

I alighted in my room and about 11 p.m. Mrs. Gardner returned and bid me the child to bed.

The front room is occupied by a Couple. (Man and woman.) Mrs. Gaertner tells me they are going to be here a couple of days.

The woman occupying the front room weighs about 175 lbs. and is about 5 ft. 3 inches tall, brunette.

Mrs. Gaertner seems very suspicious of me, so I am unable to do any questioning.

I left the place at about 11:50 p.m.

Mrs. Gaertner was on the front porch with another woman.

I told her if anyone called me up to tell them to call me in the morning.

Between 12:25 a.m. and 12:50 a.m., I did not observe any comings or goings.

I discontinued at 12:50 a.m.

Receipt attached.

Home: 3:30 a.m.
In Company with Inq. V I visited the above place at about 7:05 p.m. We went into the room that I have occupied the night previous.

(9/27/17) We saw two small children who were called Hazel and Violet by Mrs. Gaertner.

Mrs. Gaertner was sick in bed and told me she could not get up to prepare the children's meals. I gave her $1 for the night's lodging.

He returned at about 11:40 p.m. and kept a surveillance of the premises up to 1:30 a.m. (9/28/17) and did not observe any women take anyone into this place.

At about 12 midnight Inq. V met Mr. Gregg, and introduced me to him.

We were told by Mr. Gregg that at 6:15 p.m. Dearborn, he was solicited to prostitution by a girl who told him her name was Grace. That he was going to report this place to the police. So they could raid the place. (See evidence on 6/15/17, Dearborn St., this date.) Mr. Gregg also told me that he had had 1977. Huron St.
under observation for one year - that Capt.
Crippens office had had investigators at 1977. Huron St about one year ago and were unable to obtain any evidence.

Time thru Oct. 4th from 12:30 a.m. to 11 a.m.

In Company with Ins. "U" visited this place at about 12:30 a.m. (10/4/17).

After a round of drinks a man known to me as Chas. Gifford and who told me he was the manager of the above place, came to our table and told us that there were two detectives in the place; he pointed out one of them to us, later telling me his name was "Curry" of Central.

At closing time a man with Curly black hair and who was about 5' 10" inches tall and weighed about 160 lbs., nods leaving the place.

I asked Gifford who he was, he said that was the box.

I then asked that I thought that Ed. Weis owned this place.

Gifford then said that Ed. Weis was a partner and was "under cover".
He tried to purchase another drink, this being about 10:50 a.m.

Geppert told us he was sorry he could not serve us after 10 a.m. but "If we came around Sunday, we could have anything we wanted, as he placed his friends in a separate room, pointing to north room.

Detective Curry had a drink served to him by the colored waiter. A check was placed on the table by the colored waiter. Geppert wrote something on this check.

Detective Curry did not pay for his drink.

I did not see Ed. Wes in this place while I was here.

Geppert told us U that he would fix him up with a girl. He sent a girl over to our table, telling us that she is a "hooker" from 313 S.E.

She gave us her name.

We were solicited to buy drinks and were served with two rounds of Scotch and paid 15 cents for one round (1 bottle) and "U" paid 15 cents for the other round (1 bottle).

He told us we could have highballs or Fizzes, but could not get any beer or real beer as they were watched too close.

I ordered gingerale highballs and more came for all. I told the manager that the highballs were too weak.

I then ordered another highball and was served with some. Mr. U & V also were served with another highball after tasting mine and finding a strong taste of whiskey.

I emptied the entire contents of the glass, and an other glass down my gullet.
I also saw U and N confect their mixtures and put same in bottles which was later served in my presence.

I also sealed my bottle containing sample of drink in front of Mr. A-U and V1.

We were admitted by the madam, she told me she thought I was officer Slater; she showed us into the kitchen and said "these boys all right" (meaning us).

3 Sailors in uniform came in from the rear door, one had a partly drank bottle of Edelweiss.

They paid the madam $1.00 for 3 bottles of Edelweiss lunch, which they drank in our presence.

The madam told me that the other girl was sick today but that she would take care of us at any other time.

I said to the Madam "have you got whiskey" in the house. She then pawned out a small glass of whiskey and screamed with pain. Charging me 50¢ for the two glasses.

Hi (the madam and myself) then went to the middle room on our way out.

The madam said that several people told her that I was an inspector or an investigator, that was the reason that she told me no girls were here doing business.

I said to her, "Whoever told you I was an inspector or investigator, work dirty deals and steal pigeons themselves."

Out of a closet came a man in skirt, shirt sleeves and stood glaring at me. I gave him a card, and stood glaring at him. He snatched the card from his hand and tore it up saying, "You will not have me for either of them (meaning U and myself) be put this hand to this hip pocket."

U and myself then left.

He will run this place himself now, (supposedly) but only to cover Mrs. Mickelson. The reason he was not taken in the raid was that he told the police that he was a printer and only had a room at this place.

Saw a man apparently to be operating as a house of ill fame.

In conversation with a woman waiting, whom I had known at one time as May. She was a married woman, now living separate from her husband; told me that if we wanted a girl for purposes of prostitution, all we had to do was to go up stairs and the clerk would fix us up.

I went upstairs while I was in conversation with May.

May tells me Eisein must be careful when he sends upstairs.

Nota: This woman would be a valuable witness against this place as she knows conditions here.
