In company with Two R. we called at this address and were met at the front door by apparently one of the girls mentioned in the report of Oct. 2nd, 1914 (same address).
This woman acting very indignant denied that I had ever been there before and we left. A man (about 30 years of age, 5 ft. 7 inches, Tall, 130 lbs, slender build, blue eyes, pointed nose and chin, wearing a light teaspoon hat, and asked us what we were looking for.

After explaining that we were looking for girl

we did. However when we returned, Alex were

During our conversation the man said his name was Fred and that he, on Thursday just passed as the woman's husband and that he had just called on her to see her the same as anyone else would. Fred said that the Madam (the largest girl) thought we were from a reform organization who had called on her last Sunday.

Fred also said he had many friends in Brunswick and that there are only 5 girls there now where they used to be 35 girls. He also stated that business was poor now and prostitution was going on the wane. He also said that he had been brought many times by investigator.

While looking for a card in his pocket he said he had nothing but pawn tickets.

I then saw a man sitting on a bench in the park. He was dressed in a suit and tie and appeared to be very important. I approached him and asked him what he was doing, but he did not respond.

A woman who said her name was Rosanna found a bottle of Eau de Cologne in the kitchen. She took it and gave it to me. She said it was very expensive.

A young man told me he was never meant to be important. The other young man said his name was Marvin Kaplan.

(29 appears on door leading to saloon, between two rooms.
While passing this saloon I observed several women and men on the inside and outside.
After purchasing a drink at the bar, I remained at the bar and had a talk with the bartender.
Then he replied yes, in account of the Becker trouble.
The bartender then told me that if I wanted a girl he would fix me up and invited me into the rear room.

There, I found about 15 men drinking and talking with four women and I did not want to take one of these girls away from this crowd and told the bartender I would call again with a friend. He told me all I would have to do would be to sit in his rear room and he would send the girls in to me.

The bartender is about 50 years old, 5' 4' tall, 130 lbs., gray hair and moustache with Jewish appearance.

They came to be operating as a house of ill fame.
We were admitted by a girl who said her name was Carrie and shown into the kitchen.
Carrie solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $1.50.

A man about 30 years old (white) came in who later said his name was Albert Earl and lives at 5600 Prairie Ave.
Albert, Tom, R., and myself were served with 2 bottles of table beer and one glass of gin for which Albert paid $5.4.
Carrie said she would get a girl for Dr. R. and left us for about 10 minutes. Soon another colored girl came in who said her name was Maggie.

I heard Maggie solicit Dr. R. to prostitution in the back parlor but did not hear the price.

A colored woman about 40 years old came in the back door who is known as Mother and is the Madam.

Mother asked Albert if he wanted a girl and she saw Albert pay Mother 50¢ for which he said she owed him for a drink that he got on a previous visit. She also asked for a pin he had left with mother for security.

3732 Prairie Ave. on 1st Flat south.

In company with Inv. R - I called at this flat about 8 P.M.

A colored woman answered the door about 40 years old, 5 ft. 7 inches tall and about 175 lbs. with coffee colored skin and who is known to Inv. R as Claudie Woods.

Claudie recognized Inv. R as a man from the C.O.T. and asked him to remove this cap which he did. She then invited me into the front bedroom and from there we saw two women; one of whom Inv. R said he knew as Reatha. The other woman looked in at us from the hall and appeared with only an undershirt on. The first woman wore a pink kimono and was about 25 years of age, blonde, 5 ft. 7 in., and 130 lbs.

We also saw one other colored woman (OVER) apparently a maid.
Claudie said there were no girls here and she let us in because she thought we wanted to see a Cadillac because one of the people there had for sale.
We knew where to go because we had met a man there at 115 W. Dearborn St., with a card marked O.K. Dan. Claudie kept the card.

SPECIAL REPORT
Special Report of Investigator V - 3841-5 Cottage Grove Ave. (Canary Cottage)
Sunday Oct. 21st 1917.

In company with Cardoza R. and A. I entered the place at about 8:15 p.m. and soon after we had seated ourselves at a stable, the floor manager known to me as Charlie Stepford, told us that they were not selling drinks.

In explaining himself Charlie said that he had been called to the Corporation Clerk's office and there he was told that that office had information that the Canary Cottage had been selling drinks on sundays.

Charlie also said that he had trouble with two women whom he had fired last week and suspected them of urging, and that they wouldn't sell drinks on Sunday for 2 or 3 weeks to come.

Same to be operating as a house of ill-fame and assignation house.

We have admitted by a little girl about 15 years old, who was later introduced to us as Eva.

We also saw a boy about 8 years old running in and out of the house, who is known as Jack.

Later, we were invited into a rear bedroom by a woman known as Clair (the madam) and Clair solicited us to buy drinks and we were served with 2 bottles of Beringer Lager Beer for which I paid 25c per bottle.
We also saw a man and woman leave the front room and soon after a woman and a man about 50 years old came from the street and the Madam fixed the room that the first couple had left. All three entered that room.

I heard Clair solicit Sue O. to prostitution for the sum of $300.

Clair also said she would get one of the women in the other room (she had just given to the two women and man) for one anytime we come over.

One young woman left the bedroom and her two friends for about 10 minutes and entered a rear room.
