same to be operating as a disorderly saloon harboring prostitutes to ply their trade therein.

I do therefore this saloon we met an uncowed woman who said her name was Birdie. Birdie had a partially filled glass of beer before her. We ordered a glass of beer which was served and for which I and 5 paid 25¢.

After I paid 5 left Birdie and I was served with three more rounds of beer for which I paid 20¢ per round.

Birdie then solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $1.00 and said I would have to pay 90¢ extra for a room. Birdie said she always takes her tricks to Mrs. Martin's rooming house at 41 N. 5th Ave. and invited me to go there with her.

Birdie also said that two other prostitutes hang out at this saloon whose names were Helen and Topsy. Birdie and myself started for 41 N. 5th Ave. where we met two sailors in uniform who asked me to purchase 3 bottles of Edelweiss Beer for them. When I refused, Birdie said she would and one of the sailors gave her 50¢ and she purchased 3 bottles of Edelweiss Beer which she paid 4.50¢ for and gave it to these sailors in the bar of this saloon. They were drinking same when we left.

I obtained their names and addresses (See Special Report for names and addresses)

Mrs. Martin — Madam.
Saturday November 19th 1917  5 P.M.

I was taken to this rooming house by Bindi, a woman from 4111 Plymouth Ct.
and at the door, I made a favorable expression and did not enter with the woman.
The woman said she would wait here for me and when I returned
Mrs. Martin, the madam, said that Bindi had left and told me she would have Bindi here for me next Friday about 5½ P.M.
Mrs. Martin said that Bindi lives out on the west side and had to hurry home.
Mrs. Martin also said she would let Bindi and I have a room on the 3rd floor for $1.00.

Special Report of July 1 - on alley south of Van Buren St. between State St. and Plymouth Court.

Soldiers and Sailors in uniform.

Saturday, Nov 11, 1917

From 5:40 to 6:45 pm and from 7:45 pm to 8:40 pm.

In the rear yard of Artie Kelley's saloon at 411 Plymouth Ct. I saw two men of German appearance talking with seven sailors in uniform. I got up on the 2nd floor of a building opposite this saloon where I could watch them.

I saw these two men take money from the sailors enter the saloon and return with a package which they gave to the sailors. The salors removed the paper from the package which proved to be liquors (same shaped bottles as whiskey and brandy bottles) and the sailors took turns drinking from these bottles about 15.

I saw sailors and solders at different times between 5:40 pm. and 6:45 pm. (over) and leave this alley and obtain liquor through the aid of these two men of German appearance.
I did not see them receive a tip from the sailors or soldiers in any instance.
I entered this alley again at about 7:45 P.M. in company with two R and four men from Deputy Westbrook's office and shortly after we found favorable hiding places. I saw two soldiers in uniform enter the alley and a civilian followed them about 250 feet north from where I was in hiding with two other men. I saw the civilian take a bottle from his pocket and give it to one of the soldiers who put it to his mouth and the civilian left the alley. We later found him in a saloon at 11 W. Yan Birken St. and he was taken to the 12th Deputy's office City Hall. During the commotion in the alley I heard a bottle strike the pavement and found a broken whiskey flask where the soldier stood which was also taken with the soldiers to the city hall. We also found liquor on the ground where the bottle fell.

I came to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

I was admitted by a woman about 50 years old, whom I heard Mrs. Pierce call "Kite.

I found Mrs. Pierce in the rear bedroom and Mrs. Pierce asked me if I wanted to go to bed with "Kite for $1.00.

Mrs. Pierce also said that she had to let Bee (former inmate) go because it was through Bee that Mrs. Pierce got into trouble.

Mrs. Pierce also said that she suspected two young men to call anytime that she was afraid of and if I should meet them on my way out, to tell them that Mrs. Pierce has moved. Mrs. Pierce said she was even afraid to answer the door.

Mrs. Pierce then called Kate into the bedroom and Kate solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $1.00.

We were admitted into a bedroom by a woman known as Madge House.

Madge solicited both of us to prostitution for the sum of $5.00

After we spread ourselves, Madge invited us into the dining-room in which we found another girl who said her name was Eva.

Madge admitted us to buy beer and we were served with two bottles of Edelweiss beer for which Eva R. paid 50c per bottle.

Modge then solicited Inv. R. to prostitute with Eva for the sum of $19.00 and Eva confirmed the solicitation.

Modge again solicited us to buy more beer and we were served with two more bottles of Edelweiss Beer for which I paid 50¢ per bottle.

During our conversation with Modge, Modge said that Marcella (formerly an inmate at 67-69 E. 18th St.) was an inmate and worked at Modge’s flat, also that Elizabeth of the same address was Modge’s sister and both Elizabeth and Marcella are now in Tampa, Florida.

In company with Inv's. P and S — I entered the De Luca's cafe at 3503 No. State St. at about 10:20 P.M. and saw two police officers in uniform drinking and smoking cigarettes in a rear room that might be called a kitchen.

When I approached them and asked what they were at work, both officers turned their backs and I was unable to see their numbers.

The clerk said he was sorry this party was out and tomorrow is Saturday and he can't make promises for Saturday, and that I should come in the early part of next week about 6 P.M. and he can fix me up.

The clerk also said that I should be sure to come in not later than 6 P.M. because he said he goes off duty at 7 P.M. and if I talked with his boss about this that he would get in wrong. He also said he hadn't hired anyone up for a week, but that I look alright to him and he will take a chance, and that it will cost me about $6.00 because the girl charges $5.00 and he will give me a $1.00 room.

Note: This is the same man I talked to on October 14th, 1917.

While walking south on Clark St. at about 9:15 P.M., in company with Mr. T. H. Brumbaugh of 6039 E. 57th Ave. (Ashland 8597), I noticed a soldier in uniform standing in front of a saloon at 4133 S. Black St.

Soon the soldier was joined by a man in civilian clothes who came out of 4133 S. Black St. and together they walked south on Black St. Mr. Brumbaugh and myself followed and watched these two men and saw the civilian enter four saloons leaving the soldier with him in each instance. The civilian entered the saloon at 17 W. Van Buren St. at about 9:30 P.M. and came out with a package in the form of a bottle under his arm. After joining the soldier on the sidewalk, the two men enter an doorway at 406 St. Federal St. where they stayed only (over).
about one minute. When they left the door, the civilian was empty-handed and the soldier was carrying a package inside of his coat under the left arm. I approached between and saw the soldier give the civilian 25¢ and I gave the civilian 10¢ for which he asked me to get some coffee.

The soldier said his name was Ed Range of Co. H, National Army at 47 Sheridan, under a Spanish American War veteran. He is about 5’11½, 135 lbs, and sandy complexion.

The civilian wrote his name on a card for me (Attached) and said he lives at a 15¢ rooming house at 435 S. Clark St. The name is Oliver Mingano.

I entered the saloon at 41 W Van Buren St. with Mr. Baumback at about 10 P.M. and the bartender of Jewish appearance, 30 year old, 130 lbs. told Jack—said he sold this man after I described him one quart of Old Taylor Whiskey for 1200

Special Report of Investigator V.
Soldiers and sailors in uniform.

Saturday, Dec. 1st, 1917.

While in company with Investigator V and A - I found four sailors in uniform talking with one man in civilian clothes at about 5 P.M., in front of a saloon at 128 B St., Black St.

We saw the sailors give some money to the civilian and the civilian entered the saloon alone. I followed and saw the civilian purchase a half pint flask of Canadian whiskey from which he drank 60 cents. The flask was covered with tissue paper. I then left the saloon and met the four sailors again on the outside of the saloon. Together the five men entered into an alley where they stayed for about 25 minutes.

Victoria told me to make us feel comfortable, to take our coats off and smoke etc. While we waited for Anna Phillips, Victoria said she was out now but would be in any minute.

Soon a woman about 37 years of age, 5'11, 135 lbs, and dark complexion came and said she was Anna Phillips and appeared to be very indignant on finding us in her flat. When we explained to her our mission she said it must be a mistake etc. and ushered us to the door.

same to be operating as a disorderly saloon and cabaret harboring prostitutes who ply their trade therein.

Upon entering we were met at the door by a waiter (apparently, the head waiter or man in charge) who ushered us to a table in the middle of the room. He then solicited me to buy drinks and we were served with two steins of beer for which I was paid $1.50 per stein.

There were about 20 people in here, including the waiters and two female singers.
During our stay, the entertainers, after each song passed a tin tray around to each patron and insisted on a contribution. I contributed 20¢ on two occasions.

Soon the head-waiter, a young man about 30 years old, 5 ft. 6 in., 160 lbs. and dark complexion came to our table and asked if we wanted to me a couple girls.

We then told me to sit in the last booth (located in the southwest corner of the room), which we did. Soon two girls came to our booth and sat with us and immediately ordered wine. I placed a 41¢00 on the table to pay for the wine and the girls laughed. When the waiter served the wine one of the girls handed me a check for 43¢00.

I paid the 43¢00 after a short argument and we tasted the so-called wine. The wine was of water color and the taste of wine was very weak.

The waiter stood by and continued filling up our glasses as soon as they were partially empty.

Before this bottle was empty the girls (who later said their names were Clarice and Janet) called the waiter and not only solicited us to buy drinks but strongly insisted on having another bottle of wine. I told the waiter not to serve us with more wine yet which led to another argument that caused the waiter to harbor a feeling toward me. From then on until I called the waiter a creep, the waiter made abusive remarks to both Inv. W. and myself. In spite of our protests against having more wine the waiter poured more wine from a fresh bottle into our glasses and for this bottle Inv. W. paid $5.00.

We saw four sailors in uniform come in from the street and were ushered into a table and served with a glass of amber colored liquor each.
which appeared to be highballs. After each song one of the singers always insisting on a contribution handing the tray to Clarice who called us cheap guys when we refused to contribute.

I heard Lafayette solicit now W- to prostitution for the sum of $10.00 while Clarice solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $20.00 and said I could sleep with her from 1 a.m. to noon Saturday. Clarcie also said that if we boys wanted to go with them we could have all the drinks we wanted for nothing. Clarice said she would take me to a flat at 914 So. Michigan Ave. Clarice also wrote her name and address on a check which she gave to me (attached) and said that I could come over there any Sunday.

Soon the girls ordered another bottle of wine and I refused to pay for it. This led to another argument with the waiter and during the argument Rev. W- paid for the bottle to save a fight. Our hats, Gov. W.'s coat, and my gloves were taken away by the head waiter when we entered the booth.

We also saw the head waiter talk with two young men at a table and usher them into separate booths. Soon each man was joined by a woman one of them being one of the singers.

We saw them wrestling and the man with his hands under their clothes every time we looked over there.

This was done in the presence of the head waiter and two other waiters.

On our way out, when we asked for our hats and coats, the head waiter said it would cost us 10¢ each to get them. We told him we spent all our money in there and he laughed and gave us our belongings.

Just in front of this place we met two young men who said they came from Indiana and that they spent $20.00 on two of the girls down there.
and that the girl promised to meet them after One A.M. and show them a good time at 814 So. Michigan Ave. Later we saw the girl leave but they turned three young men down.

Ino. W.-said Janette had promised to take him to 814 Michigan Ave. after 10 p.m. and we were to meet her at the Auditorium Drug Store (corner Wabash Ave. and Congress St.). The girl did not show up.

In company with Inv. W - Entered the above address at about 12th a.m. Sunday Dec. 9-1917 and found about 150 people including waiters and entertainers.

We were unable to be served with anything but soft drinks and so far as could be observed other patrons were served with the same.

During our stay we were served with two rounds of soft drinks for which Inv. W - paid 50¢ per round including a 10¢ tip in each instance which he had dinner here.

The dancing of course, was immoral also.

The entertainers were showered with coins thrown to them while singing, from men at tables in various parts of the hall.

During a conversation with the man in charge of the laboratory in the basement he said that he is personally acquainted with Ed Weiss. (over) and that Ed. West has money interests in three places in the city that he knows of.
When I asked him what places they were he mentioned the Canary Cottage, Edelewise Gardens and the Winter Gardens.
We also saw two sailors and two soldiers in uniform. The two sailors were seated at table with two girls whom I knew to be employed here as dancing instructors. I saw them served with two courses of drinks for which the sailors paid for.
We also observed girls smoking cigarettes in various parts of the ball.
I paid $1.00 for our admission.
We left at 2 a.m.

Official Report of Investigator V.

2841-5 Cottage Grove Ave.  Canary cottage.
Saturday Dec. 8th 1917 — 10:45 p.m. to 11:15 p.m.

In company with Inv. W. I entered the above address at about 10:45 p.m., and we were ushered into a table section of the orchestra and found about 250 people present.

We were solicited to buy drinks by a colored sailor (#16) and we were served with a bottle of Edelweiss Beer for which I paid 20c plus a 10c tip to the sailor. Later we were served with 1 glass of whiskey and one bottle of Edelweiss Beer for which I paid 15c. The crowd consisted of 40 sailors and one colored sailor, all of whom had female companions, and were served with colored liquor.

The dancing was indecent in the presence of a young man known as Charlie Rippet acting as manager.

Able to see a woman known as Myrtle of 1745 W. Madison St. accompanied by two Negroes sitting close to our table. We left at 11:15 p.m.

Expenses 61.00

Special Report of Nov. V - for Monday December 10, 1911
on 121 No. 5 Pl. Ave. Basement - front.

In company with Nov. V - I entered this place at about 3:30 P.M.
We were admitted by a man (about 40 years old, 160 lbs., 5 ft. 5 in., and dark complexion) into an adjoining room from the basement entrance, into a room directly under the sidewalk, where we found about 10 men standing around a desk handling money and talking about races. The man behind the desk whom Nov. V - called is known as John, appeared to be the keeper. He is a man about 40 years old, 5 ft 6 in., 140 lbs., dark complexion, black hair, streaked with grey, wore a derby hat and black overcoat.

The latter mentioned, continually answered a telephone that is in a room partitioned off that is directly under the stairs that lead to the basement. After each telephone conversation he returned to his desk and... call off names (apparently of horses) and handing money to the men standing at the desk.

We were solicited to play whist and I played two hands to offset suspicion on account of me being a stowage.

We left at 4 P.M. and were let out by a man about 5 ft 10, 160 lbs, 50 years old, grey hair and wearing a black overcoat and derby hat, whom I heard called 'Candy'.
Special Report of Inv. V - Monday Dec. 10th 1917.
on 1823-25 W. Madison St. (Rear of Saloon).

In company with Inv's Rand U, I entered the above address and we sat at a table on the east side of the room.

We were solicited to buy drinks by a waiter known as George, and we were served with one bottle of Edelweiss Beer and one glass of Beef Tea for which I paid 30¢ plus 10¢ tip to the waiter.

We saw two couples leave the saloon by the rear door that leads to a rooming house over the saloon.

I also recognized a woman sitting with another couple at a table whom I knew to be a prostitute.

- Expenses 40¢

Same to be operating as a house of ill-fame.

On the 2nd floor I met a dark complexioned girl about 22 years old who apparently was the keeper. When I asked for Grace, this girl said Grace was not there anymore but said she had another girl.

She then took me into a room in the northeast corner of the 2nd floor where I found a little girl about 5 ft 7, 130 lbs, dark, curls, who said she was French and solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $5.00 plus $2.00 for room. The door in the lobby that leads to this room is kept locked.

Special Report of June V - Tuesday Dec. 10th - 1917, on 5-7 W. Delaware Place. (Delaware Hotel 1st fl)

At about 10:45 p.m. I saw a man and woman leave a taxicab and enter the above hotel.

I followed them in and on the first floor a woman about 50 yrs old acting as the keeper said to this couple, "my rooms are all filled up but one will be empty any minute."

The keeper then invited them into a waiting room and told them she would let them know as soon as a room was empty.

The taxi drove off but I was close enough to get the license number.
