

For the evening, Effie lent me a little money, which I spent on refreshments. We met again at the Temperance Hall, and enjoyed a pleasant evening. We discussed various topics and exchanged ideas. The evening ended with music and conversation.

By the time the evening had ended, I felt refreshed and energized. I was grateful for the company and the opportunity to learn from Effie's experiences.

Effie's advice was valuable, and I took it to heart. We parted ways, promising to meet again soon.

Dentured the above address at about 2:45 p.m.
and found about 20 men, some of whom were playing "running" and others were standing around a desk when a man known as "John" is in charge.

I saw money passed from man to man at the running games and also saw men handing money in bills to "John".

I also recognized a man known as "Candy".

John answered a telephone quite frequently and would return to his desk, call off names (apparently of houses) and hand money to men standing at the desk.

Officer Tony placed some money on a bone dubbed Nelson, leaving his "initial E" with John. We left at about 3 10 p.m.

We were unable to buy anything but soft drinks and were served with three rounds of drinks. I dropped the further I paid 50c for.

During conversation with Tom Blake, Tom said the owner is a salary and not and asked him if he worked for Ed Weiss.

Tom replied, "Yes, I do and I don't.

Two P. I. also asked Tom if Ed Weiss still owns this place, and Tom replied "He does and he don't, he has a lease."

We also saw a woman about 50 years old leaving the place as we entered whom Tom said was his wife.

We left at about 1:22 P.M.

I came to be apparently operating as a disorderly hostess but friendly to prostitute. We were taken here by two girls whom we met on Madison St. who said their names were Marie and Florence.

Marie solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $13.00 and I heard Florence solicited two to prostitution for the same amount and later the girl said it was too bad to do anything then and asked us to meet them Monday at 5 P.M. on the corner of Paulina St. and Adams.
Marie wrote her name on a piece of paper (attached) with her telephone number as Sealey 1456 (in name of Floyd Allworth, 1961 W. Adams St. Utica) according to Sealey 12-007.

We were all served with a small lunch by the proprietor called Charlie (Chinese) for whichInvoice X paid $1.20

Wednesday January 7th, 1918, on 3804 Grand Blvd., 1st floor

In company with Inv. X—after ringing the bell at this above we were admitted into the front parlor by a woman whom on a previous visit said her name was Mrs. Love.

Mrs. Love could not place us at first and called in a girl who said her name was "Ethel." When Mrs. Love referred to Ethel, she called her "Mrs. Brenkley."

Finally Mrs. Love and Ethel said that they remembered me being there with a short, curly headed brick Jew who said his name was Dave. She also accused Dave of being the man who framed the robeder of himself and in match of her flat about 6 weeks ago. When I asked him if she was sure she was accusing the right man, she said she was, and said that the police have one of the robbers so far and that the police have traced the robbery down closely and they also say that this short, curly headed Buck Jew was the frame of the robbery.

Mrs. Love said she lost clothes, money and diamonds when she was robbed and that she had put up some money to the police for the capture of the thieves.

Soon the door-bell rang, and Mr. Love had worn a about in the hall and said, two Dickes was coming in.

Mrs. Love used the telephone prior to this and it appears as though she called them suspecting me on account of visiting her flat with Dave. However, I denied being there with Dave and shortly after the two men entered the front door Mrs. Love gave me her card and said there would be nothing doing at her flat only after 11 P.M. and she invited us both back. She then let us out the back door.

2334 Indiana Ave.

5 o'clock same time operating as a house of ill-fame.

We were solicited in front of this house by a girl about 30 yrs, 5 ft 1 1/2, dark, and 120 lbs. who said to us, "Now is the Yellow Tape," when we replied "what" she asked us if we wanted to have a good time.

She then took us to the 3rd floor of the above address and solicited us to prostitution for the sum of 200 each in a middle bedroom.

MCMXII.
