Wednesday May 15th

3:50 P.M. 4:25 P.M.

I came to an operating at a house of ill-name, was soon admitted into a dining room, by a colored woman, whose name introduced me to be Florence.

Florence said, she had a girl friend on the 2nd floor, and called "Oh Kitty"

Soon a white woman approached from old corner, where Florence introduced me to be Kitty.

The woman both admitted to prostitution.

First admitted to prostitution by Florence. She said, "it's all right as we can do business...

I asked Kitty, solicit Fred V to prostitution.

She said, "to you, not to another," Fred V said, "what is she going to cost?" She said, "25 to 50 for the room."

(Come)
I asked Flormer what her price was, she replied "two dollars and 50 cents for a room for a short time, and $5.00 plus $1.00 for a room for all night." I gave Flormer $2.10 to keep her confidential. I paid her $1.10. Flormer gave her 50 cents for the same purpose.

Some time before six o'clock we reached the top of the hill. Water was flowing from the faucet which we had run up the well and I walked up.

Upon opening the door, the frowny-faced Edna was standing in the hall way. She was dressed in a kimono which reminded me of Edda.

When I asked her if it was all right to come in, she replied, "Who is your friend down stairs? You told him to go away, and you come back and stay so long as you want to." I will trust you all night. I shall not let two men in at a time. I have just been put out of a place and John in a respectable neighborhood.

Memorandum

Same to tie printing on a piece of Ill-gain.
Upon going into the bell a certain sound and said, "just a moment."

Such a woman opened the door and at first and returned without saying anything on Thursday April 16th 1918 at 5641 Princeton B. R. 2nd floor.

She said her name was Muriel Thompson.

Muriel Thompson said we that she had company and that we should go back that before coming.

She mentioned to me to call on her Tuesday 8:00 PM May 16 1918, when I b. V. asked her what she desired, she replied "8:00".

I asked her if she had come up our letter,
She replied "yes and I will trust you give".

Memorandum of conversation with Muriel.

The name J. O'Grady appears on the bill.

Investigation.

In the office of the Jordan
Apartments, I listened into a conversation with the colored night clerk, after which we entered theJordan, Inc.

J. R. AMERICA, if I were ever around to which he replied, "no, he had clowned him these four or five years, because he was not aware of apartments to own girls."

When I asked him if the girls all go round and if he could put me up with a girl, he said, "you can do not a government man? for they are raising things around the city.

I told him that I was all right, he said, "well you can't look like no party way, and I will hit you up with a nice girl, who will show you a good time. the only charge a couple of dollars, and you can stay as long as you want to."

Clarens then showed from the switchboard, a woman on home he called "Miss Cannon," saying, "I am dressing up to picture of all right!"
He then told me to go to Apt. 605. When I asked time, who the woman was, and how long she had been living in Apt. 605, she said: "I have only known her for a couple of weeks, and she has been here about that long, and the fellow tells me that there is good music."

I walked up to the 6th floor (elavator bringing out of order) to Apt. 605, and when my knock was admitted into a bed room by a woman whose name and occupied domestic against Friday April 19th, 1918, and Monday April 22nd, 1918, in Room 605, formerly left 740 E. 2nd St. (who said her name was "Mrs. Conley")

Mrs. Conley told me that she had a lot of trouble with the woman and that she was not going to take any more Chinese, and was going to lead a straight life.

After leaving Apt. 605, I again entered into a conversation with Clarabella. He said that he could find me a job with a girl on the 4th Floor. He showed me to a girl on the 4th floor, but did not receive no response.
3841-45 Cottage, Townhill, Canary Cottage.

During the evening,
After being seated at a table in the South West corner, a colored waiter came to my table and said, "what will you have?"
I said, "bring me a bottle of wine.

Bore the waiter hurriedly, and arranged me with a brown bottle of wine, this bottle the waiter opened before me, and poured it into a tall glass, and taking the bottle with him,
This time tasted like sugar, and a change was made of 25% and plus a 10% tip.

At a conservative estimate, there were about 100 cottages in the place, and I saw there served with brown bottles of wine.

I had two female waitresses, and two musicians, and also dancing.
A man whom I mentioned,
From Ghire, was sitting at a tall trestle,
I saw from under the table tables.

I went to middlebury, where walking about the place, acting as manager.
I entered into a conversation with one of these men, and asked them if they served a dinner on Sunday, to which they replied, "We are open from 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. to while the people get like going home. How are we only five or six at dinner, or a sort of entertainment on Sunday, and the commoner of 7:00 P.M. I only having one set on that day. We are open 9:00 to 7:00, and you can come till 8:00 P.M. and are not first and I will be that you are treated all right."

And then sitting at a table near mine, and having also arrived with a bottle of brandy the evening before.

Investigations

Upon ringing the bell, a woman called through the speaking tube, "Who is it?" I replied,
"Trogl." The woman then sang, and the door opened leading to 1st floor East.

Upon entering to 1st flat East, a woman was standing at the door, whom I asked my previous guest, who said her name was Marian Thompson.

While Marian Thompson repeated all right to come in, she replied, "I told you before that I will only let two men in at a time, and I am not going to take chances with two. I have had too much trouble a couple of nights ago," she then pushed me away and closed the door.

Note: At about 5:20 P.M. I had a telephone conversation with Marian Thompson, and she told me that it was all right for me to come. She saw another woman in the flat, both women were dressed in blouses.

Upon entering this pleasant room, administered by a floor manager to it all, in the East part of Middle Room.

Waiter #5, check #17 came to my table, and asked me what I would have to drink, I replied, "a bottle of Beer."

Soon the waiter returned with a brown bottle of beer, this beer the waiter opened into a tall glass, taking the empty bottle with him. I noticed the name of "Schlitz" on the bottle.

I can not say whether this was Lager, Pilsner or true, I asked the waiter if this was true, to which he replied, "that is real beer, but we don't serve that kind of beer to every body."

A charge of 20¢ was added to my bill.

I was served with an other bottle of the same kind of beer and a sandwiched, for which I paid 10¢ plus a 10¢ tax.
At a convivial reception, there was about 180 persons in the room, and the formal table was well laid with brown bottles of beer, and other drinks which appeared to me to be ¦. A tall, fair couple, sitting near the door, were introduced. I saw a porter with a woman, setting at a table, this couple left at 11:30 P.M.

I saw two female entertainers and two musicians, after the two entertainers each sang a song, dancing that took place, the dancing was very vigorous.

I saw Laurel, dressed in walking about the floor, and under complex to tables, she appeared to be very active and at times very nervous.

At a table, about 50 feet west of my table, a man and woman, this couple kept a constant observation on the room table, and soon the man called over one of the floor managers, after a moment of conversation, the woman observed that she appeared to be very nervous.
I did not see them leave. I did so, but in the name of the king, the woman saying one them who said, "I know all about them, they are all government men."

I did not see the party left at 12:30 A.M.
I left the place at 12:30 A.M.

Another attempt at some structure.

Two attempts at combining lines, increasing length of line.

Rumination, "drifting" and "disappearing".

The first lines are the most "concrete" and the last are the most abstract.

These two attempts are meant to explore the idea of combining concrete and abstract elements.

The next step is to develop a more consistent line length and focus on the relationship between the concrete and abstract elements.

The final step is to refine the structure and develop a clear narrative.

"Come in," I did so, and opened a closed

Upon the floor, I asked her if anyone was in.
She replied, "Hanny left me to go out."

Investigation.

While standing at the bar and having a round of drinks, I saw two police officers in livery from #4748 & 2416 drinking at close of bar, eating a sandwich, and one empty E德尔德里森金瓶 in front of them.

After they had drunk this round of drinks, officer #2416, I saw, and was served by bartender, with an empty bottle of "E德尔德里森金", this bottle was split at the bar.

Inquisition

Upon entering this place, I was ushered by the floor manager to a table in the west part of the South room.

Waiter #4 came to my table, and asked me what I wanted to drink. I ordered and was served with a bottle of beer.

The beer was poured into a tall glass, the waiter taking the empty bottle with him.

The beer tasted like red lager beer, for which I paid 25¢ plus a 10¢ tip.

The floor was well crowded, mammoth to say that the floor was filled, and I saw that patrons were turned away.

I saw some woman rushing into tables, and were very active.

There was a thin fair orchestra, and two female entertainers, the former use of a suggestive nature, called the Chimney corner, and rubbing their sides.

At a table near mine, sat Margaret Kelly, whom I met and obtained evidence against at 3944 Clinton Ave on 7-27-18. This was with a young man. I saw her leave the table, go over to another table, and talk to a sailor, both men with a woman.

I saw the floor manager give the door man some money (about 2 dollar bills). The door man then went out side, and in a moment a tall man [weighed about 180 lbs] age of about 30 years] came in apparently a police officer in civilian clothes.

This man did not uncover himself but remained at the entrance, entered into a conversation with the counter, the counter called the attention to the floor manager.

This man and the floor manager entered into a conversation and left the room. By the floor, I followed them, within a moment and on the corner side, both men had disappeared.

At about 9:25 P.M. I entered the John Brown Saloon at 115 E 35th St. While having a round of drinks at the bar I spoke to a police officer wearing uniform #788, and a man in civilian clothes standing at the south end of the bar. Both men ordered and wore black suits that indicated a worker of "Brown's Whiskey" for which the civilian paid for.

While on observation at about 9:25 P.M. on Indiana E 35th St., I saw a woman in all walks of life, unaccompanied, acting in a suggestive manner, and apparently prostituting herself to pay. It seemed as if she entered into a conversation with a woman, whom I met and obtained evidence against at 39-41 E 33rd St. on 3/23/18, who said her name was "Bab Miller," and that she was out for a good time. When I asked Rhone's opinion in regard to the striking drunk hoovers, he said,
"to my opinion it is a political movement, but what the outcome will be, I don't know."

At about 10:20 P.M., I entered the

The people in the vicinity were very much against Funkhouser, and were glad that he was voted out of office, and that the people were going to use their utmost influence to see that Funkhouser would never get back in office again.

Cut about 8:35 a.m. found a saloon on 3459 Cottage Grove Ave. I could obtain no information in this place pertaining to view, and existing of Funkhouser. However did say, that intoxicated drunks were being served in the rear room.

At about 11:30 a.m. entered the Elks Cafe (saloon) on 830 E 39th St. I could not obtain no information in this saloon pertaining to view etc.

Then entered into a conversation with the door man (colored) who was addressed as "Red."

Red told me that a woman league composed of church workers are doing their utmost efforts in trying to get Funkhouser back into office.

I saw three women go into the cafe.

At about 11:15 a.m. I entered the Coney Café on 3841-45 College St. W.

After being seated at a table at the west end of the Smith room, waiter
#3 came to my table, and asked me what I had to drink and that the floor was only serving soft drinks.

I ordered and was served with a ginger ale for which I paid 15¢ plus a 10¢

I walked into a conversation with the floor manager, who pointed my seat to two him sitting at a table, saying that these women were city detectives and that two government men were at the counter, and that these government men were in the place for the purpose of watching soldiers and sailors.

I saw two men leave this place where I found a city detective.

This place was well crowded, and

San Francisco was in action.

Investigation in Room 712

Upon arriving on the 7th floor, I found the sound of music and two female voices singing in Room 712, and the door being partly open.

Upon my knock, a young girl dressed in a spotless white and a new coat, "Jill," came to the door, and said, "Hello kid, who ain't you?" "Come on in and make yourself at home.

I did so, and Jill put her arms around me and asked me to sit on the bed with her.

Just at this moment a colored bellboy and a colored elevator man came into the room, the bellboy said, "Who told you to come here, for there is no floor for you." To avoid complications I left.

Jill told me to call her up any morning and that she worked during the day.

There was another young girl in the room.

Investigation

While standing at the bar and having a round of drinks, I entered into a conversation with the bartender, who said his name was "Fred."

After a period of conversation, I asked him if he knew of any girls to which he replied, "Sure, any one of them."

He then produced a book and said, "What kind of a girl do you want. I have jet, blond, and black-brows."

He then telephoned Lincoln 3246 and said, that he had a girl picked up for me, who would be here within an hour.

At 4:30 P.M., I phoned Lincoln 3246 and entered into a conversation with a girl, who said her name was "Eleanor."

When I told her that I was a friend of Fred's, and if it was all right to come over, she replied, "I can't see you now, and I have company now, and can't see you until about 9 O'clock or later."
When I asked her where we could go, she said "over at Bird's place."

While in this saloon I also eavesdropped into a conversation with a man who said his name was McGlum.

McGlum told me that the saloon was a "haul out for crooks, gamblers, and all sorts of criminals."

He also showed me a room which was described as being that the room was used for the purpose of prostitution and that Bird had the key.

At the east end of the bar, I saw fires, men, playing cards, lights, some of money around the bar, and the bartender部分 participated in some

Anna Smith.

V —

Anna was operating as a house of ill-fame. We were admitted into a dining room by an elderly woman, who told us to sit down, and that she would call Anna.

Soon a girl came in, whom I saw and obtained assistance against on Monday, June 3rd, 1918, who said her name was Anna.

Anna ushered me into a front bed room, and solicited both by sit in prostitution. She said, "Who wants to go first?"

When I said I wanted her, she told me, "No, the charge, Anna replied, "A couple of dollars."

Anna stated that the woman had been admitted we Alone.

Saw a girl at dating as a house full-fun.
I was admitted into a middle bed room by a woman age about 35 yrs.
who said her name was Maria.
Maria solicited me to prostitution for the sum of $1.00. She said "let's go to bed".

In the front parlor I saw two young girls age about 18 yrs, old.
I rose part to the floor by a
