Bermudez told me that he had seen her only twice since Margaret had gone.

Mormoness told me that she had gone to a lunatic asylum.

While standing at the door, I inquired if Margaret had come.

At about 4:25 p.m. the Bermudez went into the office and upon returning

The Mormoness told me to go back. I

We did so, and found two anxious women waiting at a table.

There was the Mormoness where we met and obtained warrant against on Saturday August 30 1918.

He said their names were "Margaret"

and "Helen."

After being arrested and accused with drinking, Margaret solicited men to prostitute. She said, "I will give you a good time for $500."

I heard Helen solicit two to prostitution for the sum of $1000 for a room for all night.

Margaret told me that the place she lived in had five actresses and that other women were employed, but lived with prostitutes.

Margaret lived in a Comfort Inn at 1919 No. 10th Ave. Phone Smoky 1050.

Helen told me that she was married that her husband was a Burglar and would escape death.

Police officer in uniform drinking and gambling.

While standing at the bar and a police officer in uniform hiding at the back of the company with three men in civilian clothes.

The officer as well as the three men were playing cards in a hidden game, and at the end of each hand the money was exchanged.

And the officer has about $300 in change for them, and Sales and some more pocket change.

The officer ordered and was served with a glass of beer from a bottle and called "kitty.

The winner of each hand was requested to put $5 in the so-called "kitty" and the game being used for drinking.

The officers were also smoking cigarettes and appeared to be intoxicated.

Soldiers & Sailors

We were admitted into a musicians' room by a woman whom I met on Thursday, August 8th, 1918.
1124 - 6th Clark St 3rd from North.
Soldier and Sailor.

We were admitted into a man's kitchen by a woman who said she obtained a writ of assistance against us on Thursday, August 8th, 1918, and that she obtained another on Monday, August 17th, 1918, and she told her mother there was Mrs. Roodhime.

Upon asking Mrs. Roodhime, I learned Johnson, she said, that the latter we to met we her, Mrs. Roodhime replied, "Jennie, we have all night last night and were also with a friend."

Mrs. Roodhime related to me that she said a son in the U.S. Army stationed at Camp Grant, but that he was now in the city playing at her floor.

She also said, that she had been in the house and that her son had all he wanted to drink, and also that her son did not have to go out to the start to look for girls, as he could find them in their flat.
Mrs. Reading also stated, that she at one time had four spinners, and that these men are now in the Army, and were ruf to see her kindly and that she had given them rum to drink.
Upon leaving this place Mrs. Reading told me, that if we found any goods to bring them up, and that she would give us the front room.
Upon our knock we were admitted into the hall-way of the 1st floor by a woman, age about 40, grave manner, short hair and she wore the apron.

When we told her that we were a friend of the, a sailor at the East India Company ship, "Robert Gordon," and which had to go to the river, after describing her, she replied: "I have I remember him, but now this the other night at 3 o'clock, was in the street, with several friends of her and tried to rear herself but I frightened out."

We paid this girl some money from the 1st floor, with quick eyes in their hands, apparently leaving this place.

We have given this address to a sailor whom we met Saturday night, in the corner of 31st & Ellis, who said he never saw Red"
and that he was from the Jist Telse.

And told me that he had five at the above address numerous times, and had found girls there for the purpose of prostitution, and that she had been there once before there.

And also told me that the best time to find girls was on Saturday and Sunday nights.

Froma said that she would have to show her for a girl for use, and then she showed Col. D. and then a colored boy came in, whom Froma introduced to me as "Clara.

Clara solicited both of me to prostitution.
She said: "I don't give anything but a good fag."
I met Froma and her replied, "Yes."

'Froma argued as to stay, she said,
"Why don't you let's stay more?"

we were from ten o'clock at night until daylight. I took two girls, and one from them playing poker, and who were later addressed as "Violet," "Della," and "Clyda."
Clark & North Car. Observation.
Soldiers and police.

While in observation at Clark and North street, I saw a woman, who is well known as a prostitute, committed for solicitation, with two women.

At about fifty feet from the two women and the woman, stood another woman, who also appeared to be a prostitute. I heard the woman, with the other say, "That's my friend, I'll get her and we will go somewhere."

I said, "I will go to Clark and North too, continuing about the street, it also and many others to commit prostitution, loiter about the vicinity of Clark & North too."

After being dated in the South West part of this sheet, I ordered and was served by waiter #8 with two brown bottles of soda, for which, I paid 50c plus a 10c tip.

The ice was served to me in smaller form, and poured into a tall glass.
and carbonated later. I asked for the waiter told me that it were "Cola Mathe Boner."

I did not see an orchestra and found the music quite nice and only one phonc complaining the place.

I asked for more ice, walking about the place.

Waiter #8 told me that there were large pieces of ice for a lemon and refilled such license any key.

The waiter also told me that the floor was clean at 1 o'clock sharp, but that Tom and Joe were going to try and ruin all mights again after he remove the license.

Investigation.

After being treated, we ordered and served by waiter #10 with our ginger ale, three full and one glass of ice. For which I paid 42¢, that is 35¢ total.

Two more cups with the ginger ale, I tasted the drink and found pow to contain alcohol.

The fact which being read to me, I tasted lager mel login far.

And a乐队 orchestra, entertaining us as we dined.

I, however, did not feel comfortable under the influence of alcohol.

I had said what a treat women had during the warm weather and asked her on this previous visit.

I then flew close to 100 m. high.

Soldier and Sailor.

After being retired and while writing to be filled with luncheon,
I saw two women apparently prostitutes
sitting at a table with two men.

I spoke to the two sailors, and one of the sailors entered into a conversation

One of the women replied, "If you can, come here, I will be sure to see you and your friends," to which the sailor replied,
"Don't forget to bring a bottle," to which the woman replied, "Sailor, take care of that."

I said another woman sitting at a table, whom I heard to be a prostitute.

These are the same two sailors whom I met in the vicinity about a week ago.
