On the way to spending at a house of ill-repute.
While Buck remained on observation on the east side, I started this process and were admitted into dining room by a woman who I knew as Stella one of the maids.

I also said a man here before I knew as Buck, this man and Stella are the maids of this place.

While in the dining room Stella solicited me to prostitution, wanting me to go to bed with her, and named the place as 507.

I learned from Buck and Stella that Bats and May are still resident, minister, and are practicing prostitution.

Rumored death of Elnor Anderson

D

Come to 4866 Lincoln Ave as a house of ill-fame.
While I was there, I encountered three women and were admitted into the sitting room by a woman I knew as Jones Anderson the tenant of the place.

While in the sitting room, this woman solicited me to prostitution willing me to go to bed with her, and mentioned the price at $2.00

I and D obtained evidence against this woman on 7/31/9.

My Dear Mr. Hatcher:

Relative to your letter, July 29th, 1919, to F.W. I wish to state that contents being carefully noted.

However, I have no other position in mind, and it may be necessary for me to call upon you for your assistance and advice to help me in securing an other position.

This I hope you will do, for the good of the work I have accomplished for the committee.

Any courtesy extended to this from will be greatly appreciated. Your Very Truly,

After leaving the sitting room, the proprietor asked me why I did not go to bed with the woman, to which I replied "that she was to go.

He then told me to come back after 7:00 p.m., after which time he would have 3 other women.

I said the proprietor have a baby in his arm, and learned that the child was 6 months old and that the proprietor was its father.

I met this same woman twice on my visit on 6/30/19, but were unable to learn her name.

Joe D. and I obtained warrants against these premises on 6/30/19 and 7/10/19, and seems to be operating as a house of ill-fare. We were admitted into hall-way in basement by a woman who introduced us as "Faggis."

This woman solicited both of us to prostitution, naming the price of $50.

I paid a woman there with a little girl in her arms; the girl being about 13 years old. I learned from Faggis that the woman was a woman.

And D and I obtained readiness against these promises on 8/12/19, while I remained out side.

came to be referring on a disorderly occasion.

We took quite in cafe, and were joined by 2 unacquainted women, one whom we know as Pauline, and the other two Paulines introduced to us as "Rob" and "Sirus."

After being served with strong Whiskey and soft drinks, by & against, these women then solicited me to prostitution.

I was solicited by Pauline and Sirius, each naming the house at 300, and the latter gave me the name of number 64 Columnt 1899, where she said I could visit her for an illicit purpose.

I obtained evidence against their premises on 7/16/19, and am D oval 1 on 7/18/19.

Comes to my office in a disorderly action. I sent them to their place by 2 women and a man named Ron.

I met two women at 2557 Madison a drug store and ask them their names to "Sonie" and "Rae."

The man named Ron being a stranger to me, but known to the woman and who joined me at Cohary and Madison.

After being armed with whiskey bottle, I was solicited into prostitution, naming the price at $300.

While in conversation at about 9:15 p.m. I said to introduced woman arguing with the hired writer, and intimated that she was going to report the place for selling liquor and disorderly and for going towards the Harlem Station.

While in the stable, this woman and a police officer came in. The officer looked around and walked out, and did not make any arrest, and the woman was told by the hired waiter to stay out until the sobering up.

I learned from the waiter that this woman was a well known prostitute, and that she frequented this place often.

While I was intermingling among the women dressing, dancing, women exposing their lips, legs, uncorrelated women, ecstatic intoxicated, and prostitute being served, what appeared to be whiskey-flavored, and straight whiskey.

I also saw a man very active who I knew as Goldberg, the proprietor.

Using our outside means arrangements by telephoning and we were admitted into dining room by the colored maid.

We were soon joined by a woman who gave her name as 'Rowe' and learned that she was a resident inmate.

Rowe solicited both of us to prostitute ourselves to make the price to reach five at 5:00 for her sheep, and 5.00 extra for room and board.

I learned from Rowe, that a woman by the name of Billy Morgan were the instructor, and that another woman by the name of Moody were another resident inmate.

I did not see the two latter women less.
