Government Report. Sugars Violation

Entering bar room. Ordered and were served by bartender with a glass of whiskey for which I was charged 60c.

During my stay of only a few moments I was spun drunk laying on the floor and vomiting about the place. Whiskey had been being served over cold. This is the lowest degree of a floor I have ever witnessed.

Child Delinquency

Entering for room I ordered and was served by the waiter with a glass of Red Sine Brin for which I was charged 25c.

During my stay I saw two small children apparently about 3 or 4 years old walking about the bar room scantily dressed and dirty frogs.

These children were mingling with drunken men whom were loitering about the bar room muttering drunkenly what appeared to be odd phrases.

The floor is stained by a foreign element and in one of the lowest depths of a saloon I have ever witnessed.
