same operating as a house of ill fame.

As per instructions, I entered the premises at 11:45 and was greeted on the 2nd floor by a colored woman who detains her name as Lina Jefferson, one of the maids.

The maid asked another colored woman whom she addressed as Sara, also a maid, who asked me to register (after I had asked for a room). This I did under the name of A. F. Belling, Great Falls, Mont., for which I was charged by the same maid $1.00.

The maid then took me to room no. 25 located on the 3rd floor, where I remained a few minutes and went into Cabin where I found no one present. I then left the premises.

On the northeast corner of Lincoln and Monroe streets at about 4:00 P.M. I was accorded by two women, whose names I elicited from them for a price of $5.00 plus $2.00 for cab.
informing me that they would take me to 1859 West Madison and then bring the Sterling Hotel. I left them and went.

At 14, 20 C.M. I saw a woman and a man come out of the Sterling Hotel and join two other women who were waiting in a checked car. Car #1 = 203335.

The party drove East.

At 14, 41 I entered Hotel and went to room. The room was numbered 102.

At the desk I make the acquaintance of a colored man.

I went up to my room where I remained until 6:45.

At 6:45 entered the saloon on the 1st floor. Off the

I saw a man standing at the bar. I ordered and was served a bottle of beer for which I was charged 25 cents. I found that the saloon was being operated by Robt. Wilson. I then left.

At 6:55 I left the hotel. At about 9:30 there was a knock at my door and Fred asked asked

"Did you call?" I replied the negative and the left. At about 10 O'clock I went to the office and asked for some stationery. This was supplied by Lena Jefferson. While writing a letter in the reception room located on the second floor of 1855

West Madison which is being connected with the second floor of 1859 West Madison by a doorway. While in the room named above I saw two women stop at the entrance to the room. One of them disappeared;

the other one came into the room and took a seat

a short distance in front of the table. After a short stop she left the room. Soon after the woman asked by Lena Jefferson if I did not want to see a girl, informing me that the girl who had occupied the seat in front of me wanted to come.

Following a brief conversation Lena called Helen one of the maids who introduced me to me. She was an prostitute remaining the address #325. Shortly after this she called five saying that perhaps I would rather indulge in prostitution with her. June came in response to Helen's call and was introduced to me by Helen. Following this I was informed by Helen that I should leave word for any girl I wanted and the girl wanted would come to my room. A fourth woman was seen, her name given as Ruby. Lucille was given as the name of another.

At about 10:30 I left the hotel.
At about 11:00 I entered the 'Lincoln Cafe' conducted as a Cabaret. I ordered and was served a glass of beer for which I was charged 35 cents. At 11:25 I went into the bar room connected with the cabaret where I ordered and was served a full of beer for which I was charged 25 cents. I then left the bar room.
At 11:45 I returned to my room in the hotel, remaining all night.

At 4:25 I reengaged room = 25 ft. which I was charged 81 50 by the colored porter.

When I started up the stairway leading to the third floor the porter asked me if I did not want to be entertained by one of the girls.

At about 4:35 I entered the bar room where I ordered and was served a bottle of beer for which I was charged 25 cents. I remained about twenty minutes after which I returned to my room where I remained until about 7 O'clock.

At about 7:05 I again entered the bar room where I ordered and was served another bottle of beer for which I was charged 25 9. I then left the premises.

At about 9:15 I returned to the Hotel. Not finding anything on the desk I asked the managers what had became of my key. It developed that room key #25 had been given to some people occupying the room joining #25 on the south. The manager asked the maid, Violet, to ask the occupants for the key. Thus, however, she did not do. Apparently, prostitution was being indulged in by the occupants. Key to room #20 was given to me as a substitute for key #25. I remained in my compartment about 10:30.

At about 12:40 AM, accompanied by a man I met about 2 blocks east of the Darling Hotel, and who told me that the hotel was conducted as a house of ill fame, I visited the Lincoln Cafe. The admittance was 25¢ and we were served a glass of beer and a 'Highball' for which I was charged 35¢ and 75¢ respectively. The highball was taken by myself. The entertainment included a charleston and 'Hootchy Kootchy' dance. This was very rotten.

It was the worst I have ever witnessed. There was also extremely degenerate dancing by patrons.

At about 1:20 I returned to my room in the hotel. I heard something of the clapping in the room joining mine on the south. Until 2:45 AM there were activities, common to a house of ill fame. I remained all night.

At about 11:15 AM Sunday I met Nelly, another linumate.

At about 11:20 I left the Hotel.

At about 7:30 P.M. I entered the hall room. I ordered and was served a bottle of beer for which I was charged 25¢. While in this room I saw two sets of gamblers, one composed of three players, the other composed of two men. I saw money change hands. One of these games was participated in by Henry Finklestein. A man addressed as Bob, who was in charge of the cabaret, Saturday night witnessed the playing.

At about 10 o'clock I entered the hotel. Shortly thereafter I saw two of the same men. They also went to the bar and ordered for H. Finklestein for the purpose. I then went to room 7-41 which I had engaged at about 1:15 and for which I was charged $1.25. This room is on the 3rd floor.

At about 10:30 I entered the bar-room. I ordered and was served a bottle of beer for which I was charged 25¢. I remained until half-past 11.

At 11:00 I returned to the hotel. I went to my room (47) and remained until 11:00. I then went down to the office. Here I was solicited by a housewife to Elise to indulge in prostitution with her. Following this solicitation she went down stairs and returned accompanied by a man. The man handed Elise a 50¢ bill which Elise gave to Violet. I also saw June, who was coming from Bilgo. 1855 West Madison. Her appearance was untidy, and she carried a wash basket.

She entered room 45.

At about 11:25 Henry Humblerston looked into the office where I was seated, leaving a vessel of water to a sailor, apparently an old fellow.

Soon after midnight I retired to my room remaining all night.

My companion and I were then obliged by Mrs. Libby Martin to indulge in prostitution with women in her charge
at a price that had previously been made to Nov. 3.
The paper also solicited us to purchase drinks, informing us that she had just received a shipment of 10 cases of 7%0

During our stay I saw upwards of 200 white and colored patrons. Some of them were intoxicated, liquors being openly displayed.

There were five colored women entertainers and two colored men entertainers. Some of the women were very rotten in their entertainment.

Dancing by the patrons was extremely vulgar.

Investigation

I was admitted by a colored woman who I have every reason to believe is Claudie Moore.

I was conducted to a dressing room 1st floor.

She disappeared for the girls and told me to wait. She left the room and I heard her in conversation with another woman and a man. Reference to my visit she returned in about two minutes that due to the police and States Att’y activities they were not doing anything.

During my visit here I saw another woman attired in a house dress who was in conversation with a man who later came into the living room and gave me the once over. The man had all the appearance of a pimp. He also informed me that they were not now operating. A.F.B.

I was seduced by a woman I came to be Lilly Martin, the keeper of this place.

She rushed me into the dining room on the first floor. She then left and brought in a woman who she introduced to me as Gladys, a resident inmate of this place.

Gladys solicited me to buy a drink. We were served by the keepers, one bottle of beer which was divided among the three of us. Following this,
I was again solicited by Gladys to buy a drink. This time we were served 3 glasses of straight whiskey. For all of this drink I was charged $6.00.
The keeper informed me that the bill amount was $7.00, he received from Omaha.

During my visit, I was solicited by both the keeper and Glodey to indulge in prostitution with the latter. I was, however, not given a price. This was supposed to be known by myself, but I declined.

I also saw another inmate and two men. I have every reason to believe were patrons, which took me
into a room in the rear of the inn.
I then left.
