came operating as a disorderly cabaret

I entered this place at about 10:05 P.M. and took a seat at a table.

Here I was served a glass of "Dago Red" by one of the waiters for which I was charged 60c.

Following this serving of this drink, this waiter and another waiter offered to supply me with a girl.

I was then solicited by one of these waiters to purchase a whiskey high-ball, whereupon I ordered and was served such a high-ball for which I was charged 75c.

Soon after this drink was served, one of the waiters mentioned ushered a woman who had just entered to my table and introduced me to each other as Miss Smith and Mr. Smith.

This ushered solicited my woman companion... to order a drink. He asked me to buy another drink although my purse was still about half full.

In response to this solicitation my woman companion ordered a whiskey highball for which I was charged 75¢.

Following the serving of this drink I was solicited by this woman companion who gave her name as Lillian, to indulge in prostitution with her for a consideration of $1.50 to place $1.25 for a room in a building across the street. She named an all-night price as $2.50.

Soon after my companion drank the first whiskey highball we were again solicited to indulge in more drinking. When my companion ordered and was served another whiskey highball while I was served a glass of ice water for which I was charged 75¢ and 20¢ respectively.

While seated at the table I saw three women entertainers give exhibitions of dancing and various body movements, the movements of one consisting primarily of simultaneous inward and outward movements of the hips and revolving movement of the same accompanied by facial contortions exhibited as she looked down to the region of her sex organ and threw back her head and shoulders. Breast movements were included.

I saw two of the entertainers give their movement of a similar nature both on the dancing space and while among the tables occupied by patrons.

I saw all three entertainers dance with patrons and saw two of them fondle men companions at tables.

One of the entertainers recognized as a former entertaining at Lake timber Off. 1859 N.M. addition.

I saw four unseated women beside Lillian my companion.

Two main raids.

At the time stated we paid a visit to the above named place at which Imm. X secured evidence of a house of ill fame recently.

In the hallway of the first floor I saw Imm. X engaged in conversation with a colored woman who was standing just inside the doorway of the front room.

The conversation was interrupted by the arrival of a colored man who was admitted by the woman. This man evidently was connected with this place.

Minutes of houses of ill fame in the neighborhood are very suspicious of more than one man.

6:26 Theres a solicitation of $50 plus 30 for a room of three girls

We were invited into this room by Mrs. Lambert and her sister.

There I was solicited by Goldie to indulge in prostitution with her, Mrs. Lambert and her sister being present.

Here we were later joined by Myrtle who solicited me to indulge in prostitution with her for a price of $5 plus 30 for a room.

(Previous report)

I saw Mrs. Lambert's 3 yr old niece asleep in the reception room joining the front room.

same operating as a house of ill fame.

On the 2nd floor (office) I met a woman in the office desk.

This woman solicited me to indulge in prostitution or perversion with resident mistletoe she offered to supply.

This woman then ushered me to a room on the 3rd floor and in the room in the presence of a resident inmate,
Alice, solicited me to indulge in prostitution with Alice.

In the room I was subsequently solicited by Alice to indulge in prostitution with her for a consideration of $5.00
I gave her $1.00 as confidence.

Stuck in the bottom of the mirror frame of the dresser I saw a card certifying 1872

that (asis), said by Alice to be an inmate had been examined and found free from venereal disease, Feb. 4 by Dr. D. Ommers, 1614.

W. Roosevelt Good

Alice informed me that inmates were examined for venereal disease twice a week.

I passed 3 men entering the hotel as I was leaving.

Prostitution and Remorse of Alice

When the door to the room in which Alice was located was opened by the woman in charge of operations of this house of ill fame (see evidence sheet this date) she was startled and leaped from the bed to her feet.

Apparently she did not have time to dry the tears that remained under one eye.

She informed me that she was very homesick and asked me to sell her a newspaper which I had under my arm. I gave her the paper.

The expression on her face was one of remorse and mute appeal.

Her age is about 20. Her face was refined in appearance and she informed me that she does not smoke.

Apprently this girl is here against her conscience.

Disorderly Saloons

The interior decoration of this place via the bar room where I saw a number of men patrons.

In the dining room where we were seated at a table we ordered dinner and here I ordered and was served a glass of whiskey for which he was charged 75¢.

While here I saw about 50 patrons 10 of them unescorted women. I saw what appeared to be whiskey and wine served to numerous patrons.

I saw mingling of men and women patrons that included caressing.

A number of the unescorted women cast envious glances at me. I and myself.

I saw most of the women I observed, smoking cigarettes.

I saw one man who appeared to be an investigator.

I entered this place and took a seat at a table

Then I ordered and was served a lunch by a mulatto waitress.

Soon, I was joined by Helen, who ordered some ice cream, for which I paid.

While seated here, two police officers from the Detective Bureau entered and arrested a girl known as Virginia, who was seated at a table not 10 yards from mine. She had a companion called Ray.

Soon after the arrest, Helen and I were joined by a girl introduced to me by Helen as Miss Dug Frase, who said she was registered at a hotel as Mrs. J. Miller.

Superintendent 654 (the is Bradley Hotel, 536 Broad St.) See attached slip.

Miss Dug Frase and I were informed by Helen that Virginia was a prostitute and was probably arrested for soliciting in the street.

Helen informed Miss De Fresne of my presence that afternoon a police officer connected with the Detective Bureau by the name of Freeman who informed her that if she ever got into any trouble that he would get her out.

Miss De Fresne and I were to go out within at another time, ostensibly for the purpose of indulging in prostitution with her. She was visibly affected by the arrest of Virginia.

While here I saw dancing by the officers in which the movements centered in those involving the sexual organs.

From about 7:00 PM to 9:25 PM, I saw two other officers from the Detective Bureau in the place watching the patrons.

At about 9:30 I again saw Virginia who had been treated and taken out by police officers earlier in the evening. I saw a man who appeared to be the manager seated at a writing desk. I also saw another man who seemed to be an attendant.

We were admitted and conducted to a bedroom by Helen Adair, the keeper of the place.
Here, after an introduction of Inv. X to the keeper, we were solicited by the keeper to indulge in prostitution with her and a resident inmate introduced by Helen for a consideration of $10.00 and $1.50 respectively for all night.

I was also solicited by the inmate in the presence of the keeper and Inv. X.

The keeper also solicited me to buy port wine which Inv. X ordered and for which he was charged 75¢ per drink for the two women and himself.
