Police Protection of Liquor Sale

I entered the bar room of this place at about 7.25 P.M. and saw a uniformed policeman standing near the back end of the bar drinking what appeared to be beer. The officer was in a very friendly conversation with the bartender and another man. Soon after my entrance another man joined the police officer and his companion and the three drank what appeared to be whisky, high balls.

After this drink, the officer and his two companions, one of whom was noticeably intoxicated, ordered and were served straight whisky.

Following the serving of these drinks another man entered and ordered a glass of whisky which was served by the bartender for which he was charged 75c.-

I ordered and was served a glass of beer and a glass of soda during my visit. For these I was charged 1.5c. and 1c. respectively.

I did not attempt to buy whisky.

I could not get the officer's name.

During my visit here I saw the three entertainers go thru performances which included very pronounced movements of the breasts, abdomen, hips, and surrounding region.

These movements were indulged in alone and also while they danced with men patrons.

Smaller services were indulged in by women patrons with men patrons.

I saw what appeared to be whiskey to sell and wine served.

While seated at one of the tables I was joined by one of the entertainers and solicited to indulge in prostitution with her. For a consideration.

She gave her name as Ivian, to be named later. I was solicited to dinner with the entertainers by one of the waiters.

I was admitted by a woman known as "Rosie" the beap of this place and ushered to a bed room where I was solicited by the keeper to indulge in prostitution with a resident inmate known as Ruby, who wore white silk pajamas.

I was then ushered to a front reception room joining the bed room and here I was solicited by the keeper to indulge in prostitution with Ruby and two other inmates, one of whom was known as Victoria. I was also solicited by all three inmates in the presence of the keeper. The price was given by Ruby as $10.00.

In this reception room, I was solicited to bring a round of drinks which I also ordered. The 3 inmates and myself were served straight whiskey by the keeper in which I was charged $1.50 per drink.
The keeper of this place formerly operated at 2614 Michigan Ave., at which place Mrs. Ruby and Victoria said they had been employed.

I was invited to return to the West Park address the evening or night of Feb. 28. At which time I was told they had left the business in prostitution and the inmates of the new address - 3246 Indiana Ave. (Douglas 5570) at that place they informed me the keeper would be conducting a house of all forms beginning Thursday, March 2nd.

I entered this place and took a seat at a table.

Here I ordered and was served a lunch and two glasses of wine (see Menu that attached). The effect produced by the drinking of this wine was such as to convince me that the alcoholic content was very high.

I saw sixteen unattended women, one of whom was smoking a cigarette and one or more under the influence of liquor.

G.F.B.

I came apparently operating as a house of ill fame. Passing these premises at the beginning of my observations at about 9:45 P.M. I saw an automobile parked in front of the premises.

At about the same time I saw a man on foot approaching from the South. He entered the house.

The house presented a darkened appearance from the front due to porch curtains atop the first floor was lighted.

I immediately entered the home of Mr. Goff at 4453 Winchester separated from that of the house under observation by only a few feet.

From 4453 Winchester Goff and heard as follows:

At about 11:10 a car arrived and 3 men and 3 women who came out of this car entered the house. One of these women was smoking a cigarette and staggered on the way to the house.
At about 11:40 I saw these six people leave the house, get in the car (in which they arrived) and drive away.

At about 11:45 I saw an automobile (not parked in front of the premises) and saw a man leave the car and enter the house. This car had a white body and was equipped with a derrick on the rear I knew as a truck. On the body of this car I saw the following inscription: D. Hock
2524 Lawrence Ave. Sunnymede 3774
Manor Garage.

The arrival of this car was predicted by Mr. Roff who said that the driver would frequently visit the remaining man's house and apparently is the driver and business of the keeper.

At about 12:00 mid night I saw another car parked near the premises. One of these women and two men occupants enter the house. One of these women carried a package (wrapped in newspaper) The arrival of that car was accompanied by buzzing of the horn and entrance was made at about 12:05 A.M.

At a little past 12:10 A.M. I saw the three women leave the house and go to the car (4th) in which they arrived. One of the women walked to the corner of Kinney and Ravenswood and returned to the car. I heard a man who apparently remained in the car in conversation with these women. I did not see the woman who entered with a package carrying anything when she left.

Following the return of the 3 women to the car (4th) there was a very disturbing tooting of the horn.

At about 12:30 I saw a woman leave the house and join the other three women in the car. After a short conversation the woman left, going toward Montrose Ave.

At about 12:45 the two men who entered with the 3 women at about 12:05 returned to the car (4th) and drove away.

At about 1:00 A.M. I saw a big sedan drive up and a woman occupant get out and enter the house. At about 1:15 this woman came out and entered the car and done away. I believe this car had about two other occupants.

At about 12:50 I saw a man leave the house who was not intervieweed. He did not know which way to go. At first he staggered toward the car which was then upon my arrival at 9:45 and after exhalation of confusion he staggered toward entrance door.

This man I believe was the man who entered the house at about 9:45.

For some minutes before the exit of this man I saw a man thru a glazed window standing near the window who appeared to be holding an 8 ounce bottle up to his mouth or nostrils.

Shortly after the exit of the man at about 12:50 I saw one woman and two men leave the house, enter the car which was parked in front of the premises on my arrival and drove away. Soon after their departure the lights were turned out.

At about 1:20 I saw a car (6th) drive up and a woman and a man attempt to gain entrance to the house. The woman first went around to the rear, the woman front followed by the man.

These two people were not admitted and at about 1:25 A.M. drove away.

The attempt to gain admittance was accompanied by shouting.

At about 3:10 I heard the voices of a young man and a young woman walking on the cement walk from the rear to the front. I then saw them enter the house. The lights were on.

At about 3:25 the lights were turned out, then on and out again and I heard a noise as that of a chair knocked down on the floor.

At about 3:50 I discontinued observations.

At this time the tow car was still there.

I left the house at 4:05 Manchester at about 12:30 P.M. Sunday and at about 12:35 saw the tow car still parked in front of 4453.

While standing on Van Buren St near Walsh, a woman approaching from the east greeted me. I then saw her join a woman known by Dr. X, who as Babe and who I saw Dr. X have a lengthy conversation at the corner of Van Buren & Walsh. Babe was standing at the entrance to a alley on Van Buren. Here I was accosted by the first mentioned woman and asked to accompany her. (May)

I was taken to the above mentioned address and on the second floor I was asked by a woman in charge to register. This I did, under the name of A H Butler, City. I was then asked to insert "& wife between Butler and "City". This I did. Following this, the woman in charge demanded $2.00 which I gave her.

May was welcomed as an old transcontinental
by the woman in charge.

This woman then instructed May to usher me to room #25 on the third floor.

I was ushered to this room #25 by May and here I was solicited by her to indulge in prostitution and persuasion with her for a consideration of $10.00.

I gave her $1.00 as confidence and another dollar upon her solicitation for another address to which she invited me for the purpose of prostitution. This address she gave me 812 East 49th St. Oakland 5616.
(See slip attached) to which I replied that Cain was not her name but is the name appearing on the mail box. I was informed that she was

I am operating as a house of ill-fame.
I was admitted to a sitting room centrally located on 1st floor by a woman who told me that her name was Stanley.

Here I was solicited by her to indulge in prostitution with her all night for a consideration of $15.00.

She informed me that during the war
she did a big business in prostitution, on Michigan Ave near the 16th St. Armory.

I was also informed that at present her patronage is rather restricted.

Was moving somewhere able about 20 somethin'
... a little dep.
... any other go billin
... front holler
... AFB.
