New York 10 Nov. 1836

Dear Sir,

Supposing it would be agreeable to you to have your packages go in the usual way as I mentioned, I put them on board the demon which sailed for London this morning.
I am sorry to perceive you wished them to be given to some private hand. Perhaps, by writing to Aspinwall he can get them from the ship & deliver them.

Very truly,

Yr. Trly,

Thos. Storrow

And, Dec. 17, 1836.
Mr. James Baldwin,

The Executor is:

C. Baldwin, Esq.
Ch. Sowami Baldwin,
Charleston, S.C.

Springfield, Nov. 1st, 1816.

Mr. Sowami Baldwin,
Sir,

I take the liberty of briefly adducing you with I have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance.

without troubling you, Sir, with the details of a long letter, knowing from the nature of your business, that your time must be wholly occupied, I will at once say, that I have recently completed a course of legal studies, and am at present admitted to practice in the courts of this state.

Should have no desire to change my profession were not the prospects of a young practitioner, any thing like flattering. This is true, however; it would be a matter of deep regret to give you my reason for wishing to engage in another profession. I should have been happy to have that a plan was set in train with you, but as my engagements are such, for a short time, as will prevent my taking a journal to Charleston, will you forgive me with assurance, the least as I know they necessarily must be, to turn a deaf ear to your advice. Are you willing to receive me at a parole in the science of architecture? The time of the same necessary to procure a course of studies, and enter upon the duties of the profession, whether it is necessary to commence practice at once? The future prospect of what the science engages, without the requisite qualifications is more than I am capable of the writing? You are many other解们 1. I should be pleased to make, but these are small, and it would be less pleasant to much upon your time. As I am about to open, it may be necessary for you to give your advice, I write defer to you the honor of giving it, with what I have read from the book of Kaubum. If you are not accompanied by the science, the duties thereof. I should take the liberty of referring you to my several wise useful stages of my effort of containing a few of my engines.

Aberfoyle,
New Bahamian Union.
I am, Sir, yours respectfully,

dated 1836.

To Honorable
James Galbraith

Charleston

Dear Sir: Allow me to take this opportunity of your valuable time as to say that I shall be an applicant to the Honorable Board of Electors for the appointment of Agent to carry the Massachusetts Electoral Vote to Washington City, and that I shall be very grateful for any aid which you may please to render me in the effort I propose to make.

Until the adoption of the Revised Statutes which limits the Adjutant General (who is also Acting Quartermaster General) to one clerk, I was attached to the latter Department, and may possibly be remembered by you during your membership of the Honorable Council. Having therefore, by the operation of the Statutes, as aforesaid, lost my former office, and being now only temporarily employed here, I trust that this Jack, with other, will induce the Electoral Board to honor me with the appointment I seek.

Permit me, Sir, to repeat that I shall gratefully acknowledge your vote and influence, should you be pleased to exert them in my favor.

With great regard,
I am, dear Sir,
Your most obedient,

William Learner.
Loammi Baldwin Esq.,
Secretary

My friend Mr. Brown of Rockingham is desirous of being employed to carry on the note of our Electoral College. Mr. P. is a very respectable lawyer, formerly a member of our State Senate from York County, and is every way worthy of the confidence of the Colony. Mr. P. has had a large family to support, and is probably straightened in his pecuniary concerns.

With great respect,
Your Ob. Serv.

Sir Lenson Nash

Eqs. of Gloucester, a member of our bar, has expressed a wish that I should bespeak your assistance in getting him appointed to carry the electoral votes to Washington. He may be depended on for fidelity; is a most excellent man and deserving of the appointment.

Your friend &
John Prince.
Cambridge, Dec. 5th, 1836.

Soami Baldwin, Esq.

My dear Sir,

We hear it seems, been at cross purposes respecting a meeting. I was present on Wednesday last, and supposed he was coming directly to your office. I requested him to say that I would see you on Friday or any other day you might wish. The next day I received a note from you asking the question which I supposed I had answered the day before. I have since learned that he did not go to Charleston as I supposed, and the probability is that you did not get my message.

I have nothing to prevent seeing you any day at your office or mine, except that I am due to be forth coming (tomorrow if I hope no longer) as a witness at East Cambridge. I should like to see you as early as possible, as I shall be Agreed to go to New Hampshire for a week or so, as soon as I can arrange my business to allow me to be absent so long.

Very respectfully & truly,

James Maynard
