Mon cher M. McCracken,

J’ai l’honneur de vous envoyer les pièces jointes qui ont été acquises au magasin couleur de la Compagnie des États-Unis.

J’ai également l’honneur de vous envoyer un exemplaire de la relation des États-Unis, à l’attention de M. Peter Jones, à M. C. F. Jackson, à M. Lessender, à M. Sweet, à M. Lewis.

Le capitaine Vansittart, sous-tendant à l’expédition des États-Unis, vous sera remis.

Fait le 20 juin 1827.

Dear Brother,

March 23, 1847

I was at your house this afternoon and your wife sent me a letter from you from Norfolk of 12th inst. as I was in bed at the time that you were with Norfolk. I have heard of 18 for Charleston. I am glad you had travelled thus far so fortunately. We little of Lewiscourt on the Aubreys side in front at you with your home.

I forgot to tell you as you return, advise him as to improvements he wishes to make in his factory premises that he has now some mills but wants a new canal & factory side in that a Town. That is all. He has the whole six of 200 or 300 acres.

I hear continguous - another creek on the good of you time he would like. He invited one to supple if you would go down as you are to your home. If you will give me an answer I will communicate it. He says the whole property moves in a trend of the family. He is a son of a little 10% of N. Augusta.

You write by the hands that the water comes from an approximately at last. Mr. Hodges is my self at Mr. C. Lowers. We have had another day of travelling.

We can all wait here at your house. To-day was the birthday before the Lord's Day for the subject of your letter. I will add what has been done. I will send it on by the mail. Good night.

Your loving Brother,

To,

I have the honor of receiving your note under a few days since, and have the pleasure to inform you that the City of New York has directed the Mayor to pay my account in full, which you were pleased to draw a short time since. I forward you the amount.

At the present moment the receipt of this money is to me, doubly acceptable, and I pray you to receive my thanks for the prompt manner you have attended my case on this occasion.

With great respect,

Henry J. Wilson
