

Irish Village

wants to know

HOW MANY CAN YOU ANSWER

1. What is the origin of the word "Bridewell"?
2. Who organized the first Citizens' Military Training Corps?
3. What swimming creature have many ancient peoples taken as a symbol of wisdom?
4. What bell recently broke a silence of fifteen centuries?
5. What is the tallest species of dog in the world?
6. What is the real reason that the Romans never invaded Ireland?
7. Did the Irish invent shorthand?
8. Was there a European discoverer of America before Eriksen?
9. Where was the present liturgy of the Church first written?
10. Can a comfortable and handsome easy chair be made from straw?
11. What poem commanded the highest price ever paid by a publisher?
12. What tie is guaranteed for thirty years of use?

ALL THESE QUESTIONS AND MANY OTHERS ARE GRAPHICALLY AND BEAUTIFULLY ANSWERED IN

Irish Village

A CENTURY OF PROGRESS, 1934

Irish Village

2A

Irish Village

RIDE in a real Irish Jaunting Car—jarvey and all!

SEE Tara Hall, the seat of government in old Erin;

Brendan's Boat, first European craft to touch American shores;

The Ogham Stone, evidence of ancient Irish Scholarship;

The Curach, the boats of the Arran fishermen;

St. Patrick's Chair, precious relic of the Apostle of Ireland;

St. Patrick's Bell and Shrine from the Royal Irish Academy;

The Leafail Stone, used in coronation of ancient Irish kings;

The Lismore Crosier, magnificent creation of ancient jewellers;

Laces and Paintings, all first prize winners from Ireland;

Replicas of old abbeys, round towers, and castles;

And Many Other Things of Ancient and Modern Interest

IN THE THEATRE OF THE BARDS AND ON THE VILLAGE GREEN A GALAXY OF STARS FROM OLD ERIN

There is continuous entertainment, including four complete shows.

The dancing sensation of Ireland, Violet Danaher and Peter Bolton, in their first American appearance.

The O'Connor Family, featuring the Pageant of Progress' youngest star—little Patsie—are here, fresh from triumphs on the R. K. O. and in Hollywood.

The Eight Irish Colleens, a dancing ensemble of grace and beauty.

Mae Kennedy Kane, Champion Irish Dancer of America.

Pat Roche, famous Irish dancer, and his Irish Orchestra.

Marjorie Livingston, famed operatic soprano.

All unite to form such an entertainment bill as has never before been assembled.

MAKE UP YOUR OWN SETS AND REELS AND DANCE TO REAL IRISH MUSIC
THE BOARD WALK WITH TWO HUNDRED FEET OF CURVING SHORELINE
AFFORDS COOLING BREEZES

MODERN DANCE MUSIC BY RAY O'HARA'S SOCIETY ORCHESTRA
PLAY THE ANCIENT GAME OF LOTTO (MODERN KENO) IN THE VILLAGE

SEE STYLE SHOW SPONSORED BY ST. VINCENT'S ORPHANAGE,
STARTING SATURDAY, AUGUST 11th

The new Irish Village is a credit to the name of Ireland and is truly worthy of your visit. Most Reverend B. J. Sheil, D.D., Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, visited the Village recently and was enthusiastic in his praise for it. His visit is described at length in the New World of July 20 by Mrs. Mary F. McWhorter. The Catholic press has also endorsed the new Village and its new management as have numerous prominent Catholics.