“Miss Jane Grindall here is shown with a puppet representing an electric meter which is a member of the cast of the musical comedy puppet show "What A Right" which is to be presented as a part of the Electric Light and Power Industry's exhibit at the World's Fair this summer. Miss Grindall is one of the puppeteers who will assist in creating the puppet performance.”
This puppet represents Mrs. Henry Pettigrew who has one of the leading roles in the musical comedy marionette show "That A Night!" to be staged in an air-cooled theatre as a part of the Electric Light and Power Industry's exhibit at the World's Fair this summer.
This puppet representing a vacuum cleaner is a member of the cast of the musical comedy marionette show to be presented at a part of the Electric Light and Power Industry's exhibit at the World's Fair this summer.
This puppet represents Mr. Henry Pettibone who was one of the leading roles in the musical comedy marionette show "That Night" to be staged in an air-cooled theatre as a part of the Electric Light and Power Industry's exhibit at the World's Fair this summer.
This puppet represents Miss. Henry Pettigrew who has one of the leading roles in the musical comedy marionette show "What a Night!" to be staged in an air-cooled theatre as a part of the Electric Light and Paper Industry's exhibit at the World's Fair this summer.
This puppet representing an electric refrigerator is a member of the cast of the musical comedy Marie Nette show "What a Night" which is to be presented in an air-cooled theatre as a part of the Electric Light and Power Industry's exhibit at the World's Fair this summer.