

The Fine Young English Gentleman

- 1 a fine young English Dandy. a frontis piece | Youthful likeness of R. B. Sherridan
- 2 Keeps up appearances & his old Landlady by coming home so late.
Night - the old Landlady at door
- 3 His lodgings up a narrow stair the furniture flashy but faded - 2 or 3 fine young friends smoking & defiling the carpet etc
- 4 Lounge on a friend's horse in Hyde Park, & chat with some first rate belle (a W - )
- 5 Dine at the Clarendon with 2 or 3 nice young friends
- 6 Swearing at the Waiter as he goes forth unpaid
- 7 Box at the Play clapping Duvernay. White gloves, & may turn out.
8. at Crocker's meets only Lord Allen & some old fellows
- 9 The Cider Cellar tho' rather low
- 10 ~~Drinking~~ getting drunk on cold punch - the company singing & shawking
- 11 Not remembering how he came away
- 12 at his office woe-begone next day - The Chief Clerk interrogating him
- 13 Flaring up with his fellows clerks "slap up trumps"

Fine Young English Gentleman

Notes for illustrations of book (?) -

Fine Young
English Gentleman

Notes by

L. C.