The Fine Young English Gentlemen

1. A fine young English Dandy - a fancy youthful Hooligan of R. L. Stevenson's

2. Keeps up appearance as his old Lordly Lady by coming home to late night - the old Lordly Lady at door

3. His lodging up a narrow stair, the furniture flashy but faded - 2 or 3 fine young fellows smoking & sipping the claret en

4. Lounging on a friend's hook in Hyde Park, D. chat with some fair lady belle (C.W.)

5. Drive out at Clarendon with 2 or 3 nice young friends

6. Wearing at Mr. Ward's, to go with engrossing

7. A box at the Play, 'Clapping,' 'Duverney,' 'With gloves, don't say turn out.'

8. At Crocky's meet only Lord Allen & some P. fellows

9. The Cedar Cellar his valued love

10. Drunk in cold punch - the company singing & shouting

11. Not remembering how he came away

12. At his office was engaged next day - the Chief Clerk interrogates him

13. Haring up with his fellow clerks, "Sap up triumph"
The Young English Gentlemen

Notes for illustration of book (?)
Five Young English Gentlemen

Note by
S. C.