CONSTITUTION OF

The League of Religious Fellowship

ARTICLE I. The name of this organization shall be "The League of Religious Fellowship."

ARTICLE II. Its object shall be the free discussion of religious and ethical questions and the promotion of the spirit of fellowship.

ARTICLE III. The officers of the League shall be five: A President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, whose duties shall be the same as those pertaining to similar offices in other organizations. Officers shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting, which is to be held the third Monday in May. No member shall hold the same office for more than one year consecutively. A Program Committee of five shall be appointed by the Chair of the annual meeting, whose duty it shall be to arrange a program for the following year and have charge of the meetings. The officers of the society, together with the Program Committee, shall constitute an Executive Committee, which shall have charge of the general business of the society.

ARTICLE IV. Four regular meetings shall be held during the year: on the third Monday of November, January, March and May. These meetings shall be held as far as possible in the different churches represented in the League, at 11 A.M. The exercises shall consist of papers and discussions, and shall be followed by a luncheon. Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be held at the call of the President upon the request of any two members of the Committee.

ARTICLE V. Any person may become a member of the League upon the payment of $1.00 initiation fee and enrolling name on the list of membership. An annual due of fifty cents shall be payable by each member at the annual meeting in May.

ARTICLE IV. If these By-Laws are amended at any regular meeting of the League, notice of such amendment having been given at a previous meeting and written notification of same having been appended to the call for the meeting.
