Hon. S. J. Douglas,
A stranger I may be, but what of that? Like yourself, a true born democrat.
And I want what republican Representative do not like to send out, to see the right kind of documents. What though I live in Michigan, may I not ask of the Hon. Sen., from Ill a proof? I will. I want his speech in full on that part of the President's message relating to Kansas. And anything else of the same sort would be gladly received and carefully preserved.

Dear Mr. Douglas,

I trust you will pardon me for intruding upon your valuable time when you learn my motive. You are an old and familiar acquaintance of mine. At the same time I presume I am a stranger to you. I was first introduced to you in the town of Winchester in Ills. in the spring of 1854 — the day that you left Mr. to make your residence in Jacksonville.

Since that time I have known you as the better man knows the greater. I have watched with deep interest your history and have noted every turn, not because I was your political admirer, but because I admired your genius and ability. Your Rail Road speech at St. Louis I very much approved and admired, believing...

My Dear Sir,

I have been in hopes that we might all act together in this county. I found that we had some strong administration men and for policy's sake I thought best not to have any public meeting. I thought the united vote of the Demo- cracy would do you more good than any speeches or resolutions that could be passed by a meeting. I also found that Raney was disposed to go for the administration and it is generally believed for the purpose of getting the Post-office. He went on to Washington and when he came home he said that he had got the advertising of the mail lettings and could have the PC if he would come out in his favor for the administration. I consulted with many of the Democrats and most of them thought best to keep still and not give him any pretentions for Conciliating Act for the administration. While I was absent last week the Presimadage came and this raised the Democrats and some of them determined to have a meeting and called one a came off this week this has given Nancy a chance to earn out and he is act for the administration in fact I write send you the article enclosed he doesn’t care at all for any principal or party he is for the P.O. and if he succeeds it will break us up. For he will use it to defeat us next fall. If it cannot keep it and the President refuses to send in my name for that cause which you better recommend Roosevelt Bills for he would suit the Democrat better than any other one that could be appointed in my place Don’t let Nancy get it at any rate it will ruin the Democratic party in this county. Tell McManus to write me on this subject and give me your views I am qualified to learn what Harris succeeded in the House if we go down we will all go together. I remain your friend and most all

Sir,

You will no doubt upon opening this letter feel like casting it aside but my dear sir hear my plea and then judge me. I address you because I believe you to be the friend of all who wish to improve. My plea is for advice and counsel. You no doubt remember when you were alone without friends in a strange country. Then you can imagine in my situation. I am not like you possessed of a mighty genius which will surmount all obstacles but still my ambition will sometimes carry me to an honorable station. I am at home till no one knows me. I am in spirit alone. There is no who can understand me. No one to second my desires. My Father and Brothers are content to dig and dig and do not appreciate my longings for something higher. My ambition carries me into the army. My Country is my pride. My motto Democracy, Union and equal rights. To all I have made Application for the Cadetship at West Point. But our Representative tells me that there are...

Dr. President he had the right to appoint this school of the public choice before I shall be held for the moment. You live if I could only get you to one of thirty or one you can but imagine my gratitude. I would work at my piece work. Before I would show my gratitude. I think of all my sisters (for I love them though I don't say it). I am not mean to be the next I have worked hard for the last two years to fit myself for the education and you I am confident that I am prepared. Either you could tell me with my pride all up my face glowing my my returning as I recall the high speculate pleased upon our country men. Our nation and her brave companions, now I long to be with them to share their hardships and their glories. You would not hesitate to give me your influence. You would say that I ought to have a chance to be there is all that. I am poor and I know I enough to know that I am poor. Hon. Senator C. Clayborne
Dear Sir,

As we not a single Democratic Representative in Congress from this state, I am obliged to send to some of our friends below for any thing I want, if I have it. I want a set of the last Patent Office Report and any other publick publications that you may have for distribution we live in a dark corner of the globe but hope to see home friends in the United States if not in this state, sir. I am looking forward to the time when you shall be President of these United States. I read your speeches in Congress for many years with pleasure. I hope to see this country prosper.

Gentleman's salutations,

S. Wright.
