Sir: In being the political misfortune without a member in Congress of my political faith and order you will excuse my liberty of writing to you, any speeches made in Congress on the anti-Lecompton side by any one the Republican wing will be duly appreciated as I am utterly opposed to the first move in the election of delegates to form a constitution also not submitting it to the people only to it should be submitted for their approval. I trust you and all the other member will be sustained in the course you have taken in the Kansas and Lecompton question. Sir, I remain your most respectfull friend,

Henry Barnes.
Will you do me the favor to send me your copies of your speech delivered in the Senate the last you delivered during a debate on the budget of territorial revenue and the subject of slavery, as also in regard to non-intervention by Congress. Being addressed, in which some of the Democratic papers are leaving the ancient marina, and launching our own, I want to see what came of the old salt men, as well as the islander from East Coast.

Hon. S. A. Douglas

My Dear Sir,

I presume that you have read regularly the Chicago papers and from them have some idea of what is going on here. No doubt your friends may often write to you on the question of the day, but Sir do they as real friends tell the simple truth. I confess frankly that I fear they do not. I am compelled to believe with grief and great reluctance that our party is hopelessly cast up in Illinois, Kansas is admitted under the Topeka constitution. If it should be defeated you will be sustained stronger than you ever were, if not I sustained. Stronger than you ever were, if not I sustain. Stronger than you ever were, if not I sustain. You as well as the rest of us are used up.

Douglas I write this not in anger but in grief. I write this not in anger but in grief. I write this not in anger but in grief. I write this not in anger but in grief.

Here at home the very men I pointed out as foes and enemies from are now denouncing you in the most villainous manner. That Hayne for one. I speak what I know. Read the leaflet for them. What will this night and you will see names there that will surprise you. I think two sets of delegates will go from here to the state convention. One Douglas the other anti. I expect to be in the convention and vote as all I can for your cause. I really look on this as the most important convention we have had for ten years. Don't let any of our People at Washington attend it but give us a fair fight and all the better. I am just home from trying to build the dist. It is over done there but some are moving to many a town. Don't let these men deceive you but look to the dark side of the picture don't be deceived. Phil Hayne is so quiedy and will be in the state convention. Wallace, Bloomington.

Sir,

I have received your speech in reply to Mr. Brown. There are others that we do for the same thing here. Please send one to James Birk Valley, Walla Walla, at this place. I, W. Potter, J. A. Lowe, E. Leach, W. H. Chandler, C. T. Bean, W. T. Colwell. All your care is gaining friends here fast and I am sure to say that the present Administration is losing ground every day. There is an awful rush felt here about who shall represent this district in the next Congress. I have many friends here that I am going to have bound for future reference since all A. Douglas speaks.

Sir,—I hope that you will excuse my boldness in addressing you—
My only excuse for doing so, is that I am a warm admirer of your principles. I should always lament the full day if you would lend me your speech against the "Lecompte Constitution" on the 22d inst—
The papers that I take will not give it in full—I want it all untill I can see some of the arguments to show to the opposition
By doing so you will oblige

Will you be so kind as to send me a copy of your late speeches on the Kansas question, I am very anxious to see you. I expect our Virginia papers will not publish them and I am unwilling to condemn one who has labored so faithfully for the Southern democracy as you have until I have fairly seen your position, and then no better way than to ask of you a copy of your recent speech.
