Dear Sir: If you have at your disposal any copies of the Congressional Globe for the last session or any speeches of Congress, you will much oblige your friends in this vicinity by sending us a copy or copies. We are living in a district in which there are many Republicans and Abolitionists and what few copies of the Globe that are in this vicinity are in the hands of the opposition Republicans, and we do not have access to them. You will therefore much oblige by sending and I assure you that they shall... be used to the best advantage of our common cause in the campaign in which we are both to enter. Permit me to state that the nomination of Hon. A. Lincoln in Indiana is due largely in this section as it is all generally hoped for your support at the Baltimore Convention. I am to come of T. D. Roberts, P.M.,

P.S. Any documents sent to this office shall be faithfully and carefully distributed by P.M.

Dear Mr. Stephens D. Douglas,

I have been informed of your illness and suffering from an affliction of the chest. I hereby bring to your attention the "Relishes," a medicine of my manufacture which for diseases of the thorax is invaluable. I would refer you in regard to its use to known physicians. I have sent to the Secretary of War, to Governor Leet of our state, and to the Hon. A. Ackerman of Belle of Virginia, whose daughter had suffered with a disease of the throat for many months, had tried the most skilful physicians of the principal cities of this country, and who was cured, in the shortest time, immediately, after the long suffering, every day by the aid of your...
Cordially, I have no confidence in your perfect restoration through this route; and as I have never been examined by a competent physician, I must rely on your judgment. I trust you will feel assured that your wants have been properly met.

I have the honor to remain your most obedient and humble servant,

Pardon Drum

Judge Sir Douglas

My dear Sir

I have been bustling around here extensively for a day or two & the result of my observations has been that with proper manipulation every thing will be right here. But considerable delicacy will be required, as there are such antagonistic elements to be brought together. I dined to day with Bennett in company with Judge Ralp[e], John Cochran, Hasting representing views that you fully understand. I walked around the grounds with Bennett & he said to me, "you are a friend of Douglas & a friend advice him to urge upon The different sections of his friends the absolute necessity of forbearance & the suspension of former animosities", "the evidence of ill feeling not only existing is here but every where". "And as soon as the Judge has insisted upon a show of friendly relations among his partizans urge it upon him to take his departure for any civility or attention shown one callee."
you will urge upon them to sink their animosities for the nonce or if they see proper to resume them to do it at a more fitting occasion but the main point is to quiet this city as soon as possible after entering it I shall of course be you soon after you arrive

Yours truly

Hon. Stephen A. Douglas

My dear Sir,

I hope that you will pardon me for this breach of etiquette in writing to one occupying as you do a prominent position amongst the most gifted Statesmen of our "glorious Union."

Without some kind of a personal acquaintance either in person or otherwise, but without further apology I will proceed to unfold the object of this letter. And it simply this that I am dealing in political matters to some extent, and if it would not be too great a favor I would ask of your kindness to send to my address the following named documents:

By the Kansas, Nebraska...
Act and all of your speeches from your boyhood up to the last speeches that you have made in the United States Senate. Also all of Bell’s and Lincoln’s speeches.

My sole object is political truth. And the way I have been situated here in: who I could not even get your speeches only as they were printed in the different papers or I might see a part of the newspapers over here. My politics has been that of a Democrat from my cradle up and that too without any prejudice to it. Being always a Democrat from a true love of its genuine principles and not mere policy, as an evidence of this fact. He was born in the dark and bloody ground of old N.Y., and that too in the same county that your opponent was born in (Kearny).

And as matter of course was always beaten in the State (that is our party) up to the time which I left the State (in the year 1863).

Present my regards to Senators Grant & Path with my profound thanks for Senate favors, and trusting that they may continue the same.

Yours Respectfully

W.R. H. Cornell

P.S. Should you send a package I will take great pleasure in distributing them -- 9/4/74.

P.S. Should you get the nomination which the signs indicate that you will, Michigan will roll up the largest majority that she ever has for any presidential candidate.
