1 Samuel 2:1-3

and the Law of the Land was proclaimed throughout the land.

The Lord answered, "I will provide a king for my people Israel, as I promised I would give them."

The Lord said to Samuel, "Do not be concerned about his youth or about his lack of experience, for I will be with him and will give him success."

Samuel responded, "What is all this noise among the people?" But Jesse answered, "They have come to seek a king for the land."

The Lord said, "Do not regard his youth or the shortness of his experience. Look beyond him to me, for I have selected a king for my people Israel."
