Trustingly that every girl, who keeps this book, realizing how much her own college has been to her, may be as loyal and as devoted to it as I am to mine, and that each in her innermost heart, where the image of that college ever dwells, may be certain—as I am—that her own is the best, I gratefully and affectionately dedicate this book to my college home, the place where so many happy and profitable days of my student life were spent, Smith College.

Description

Containing 39 rooms - 3 of them double. Therefore accommodating 42 girls.

Reception room, pantry, dining room, and heads and housekeeper's rooms on first floor.
The Ideal Co-ed

The ideal co-ed is a thing of books,
   A creature of brain entirely;
With stooping shoulders and studious looks,
   She digs all day and half the night;
People say she is wondrous bright,
   But her figure's an awful sight!
Her thoughts are deep in the classic past,
She only thinks of A. B. at last;
   She has fled this world and its masculine charms,
And a refuge found in Minerva's arms.

Now, the kind of co-ed that I describe
Is a co-ed seen very rarely;
The real co-ed's a thing of grace,
With dainty figure and winsome face;
   She walks and rides, and she cuts, Mon Dieu!
But every professor lets her through;
For her each year is a round of joy,
A. B. means nothing if not "A Boy,"
   And you and I must yield to her charms,
And take the place of Minerva's arms.

Fair Smith

Fair Smith, our praise to thee we render,
   O dearest college halls,
Bright hours that live in memory tender
   Are winged within thy walls.
O'er thy walks the elms are bowing,
   Alma Mater.
Winds 'mid branches softly blowing,
Ivy round thy towers growing,
   Alma Mater.

Though time may prove the pleasure fleeting,
   No hour is sped in vain.
True hearts behold the future meeting;
   Our friendship cannot wane.
Of thy care forgetful never,
   Alma Mater,
Bound by ties that naught can sever,
Still to thee returning ever,
   Alma Mater.

And while the hills with purple shadows
   Eternal vigil keep,
Above the happy river meadows
   In golden haze asleep,
May thy children thee addressing,
   Alma Mater,
Still with grateful praise unceasing,
Speak in loyal hearts thy blessing,
   Alma Mater.

To the Greater University

I hear the break of a sea of seas
And the thud of a league-long crest;
I hear the shock of the King of Seas
On the wall of the mighty West.

I see the plumes of forests kings
From Sierra's snow to plain;
God's amphitheatre tier on tier,
Where Pine and Redwood reign.

What sapphire sky and purple mist,
No Italy so blest;
O vision of Hesperides!
Land of the sun-down West!

What inland seas of golden grain,
What vine and orange tree,
What flower-set banks and poppy hosts,
What summer reverie!

What carnival of sunny hours,
And lull of drowsy noon,
An Indian summer's dream is mine
In the golden afternoon.

The sunset lights a Queen of Bays—
A thousand flags are flaunting;
The world's afloat! and East and West
Salute with colors vaunting.

Oh, what a royal red is where
Yon western sea lies dreaming!
And through the Golden Gate flung wide
The sun-down light is streaming.

The sun's last sheaves are caught in the leaves
Where Oak and Pine enfold,
And mile-long level spears of light
Break to a dust of gold.

What spires and column-crests are those
The sunset light hath kissed?
What temple-top is that whose base
Is veiled in violet mist?

What city that—all wrought in white,
What halls are those I see?
'Tis reincarnate Athens built
By Balboa's western sea!

Oh, what a reach of colonnade
And domes to prop the sky,
And porches welcoming the world
To truth that cannot die!

Thy steeples climb to Heaven's height,
To lift mine hope as far;
Thy finger-spire doth point the way
To yonder God-built star!

Leslie M. Turner, '03.
In Ethics

Behind our books we trembling cower
Nor lift our eyes at all,
But pale we quake, for conscience doth
Make cowards of us all.
