In the name of God, Amen. I, Caleb Whitlock, of the City of Hartford, State of Connecticut, Unison, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this, my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First, I direct my executors herein after named, to pay and discharge my just debts, expenses, and should there be any outstanding debts at my decease (there being some due,) to pay the same as soon as practicable.

Secondly, I give, bequeath, and devise to my sister Elizabeth Williams, the unimproved and proceeds of all my estate both real and personal, the profits, produce and interest from the same to be used and enjoyed by her during the remainder of her natural life, and then immediately after her decease I give, devise, and bequeath the said estate, real and personal, absolutely to my surviving children, Harrietta M. Carke, John A. Whitlock, the children of my deceased daughter, Mary C. Johnston, and the son of my deceased daughter, Catherine L. Seymour, to them and their heirs forever, to be equally divided in four shares, one to be allotted to each of my surviving children, Harrietta M. Carke and John A. Whitlock, one share to the children of my deceased daughter, Mary C. Johnston, and one share to the son, William J. Seymour, of my deceased daughter, Catherine L. Seymour, and to their being forever.
It is my wish that my said estate should be divided and apportioned as before and among my heirs as soon as practicable after my decease, and that my executors hereinafter mentioned, for the benefit of one of my heirs as may be missing, to invest the same there may fail to their share, they are authorized to do as same according to their judgment and discretion.

Lastly, I do hereby name, constitute and appoint Henry K. Lathrop and Isaac T. Tompkins my executors of the above last will and testament herein before recorded, all and every other will by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal to the city of Hartford, this 4th day of November, the thousand two hundred and thirty-sixth year.

[Signature]

The above instrument was at the date hereof signed, sealed, staled and delivered by the said testator, Gabriel Westlock, my executors and mine last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request and with consent and in the presence and by the direction of said executors, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

[Signature]

Henry Kenyon, Witenes
Walter Kenyon