Mrs. Whitlock died sometime in 1862 or 1863 leaving her surviving:

her children
John Whitlock
Henrietta Carter, wife of Henry R. Carter and grand children
William Johnson Simms, child of her deceased daughter Caroline

Henry W. Johnson,
Virginia Escovedo,
Mary E. Johnson,
Frances L. Sheppard,
(heirs of her deceased daughter Mary wife of W. L. Johnson)

John Whitlock, since deceased, leaving a widow Sarah Whitlock.

Before his death he executed a quit claim deed of all his right title as heir at law of Eula Johnson deceased of said property at Jamaica to Henry W. Johnson. His wife did not join in the Conveyance and is still living.

Frances L. Johnson (Sheppard) executed a quit claim deed of all her right title as heir at law of Eula Whitlock deceased of said property at Jamaica to Henry W. Johnson.
Henrietta Carter died sometime after 1867 leaving her surviving Henry W. Carter her husband, and Henrietta Paulette, wife of John Paulette
Mary E. Carter
Ella Carter
Isabel Carter, her children

Henry W. Johnson died intestate and unmarried during the winter of 1863 or 1864

William L. Johnson, father of Henry W. Johnson, died in the summer of 1870 leaving a will