Received from Mrs. Cloud J. Baddie, also Samuel, and husband of the last, four notes each for the sum of Two Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Dollars payable to her own order and by her endorsed, and authorized by her husband payable at the Counting House of H. Kendall & Company, New Orleans, on the first day of March 1857, 1858, 1860, 1861, and 1862 respectively, with eight per cent interest from May first, 1858, all amounting to the sum of Eleven Thousand One Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($11,120.00) which said notes are in full of her account with said H. Kendall & Company. Due to May first, 1858, amounting to the sum of Eight Thousand One Hundred and Fifty-two Dollars and Ninety-four cents ($8,152.94) it is believed to make up the amounts of said notes to be subject to her draft on order.

Martin Turner
Inclined is a Note on Mr. Farren for $135.50

I came by this note in the following manner:

In Jan 1846 you paid into my hands a draft drawn by John M. Chilton for 220 Dolls on Payne & Harrison. Chilton paid me $50 which I sent down & not being able to get any more out of him left the draft with Mr. Matthews when he lived in Dickburg to try & collect it & he traded it off to James & Power, all that I got for it was the watch which Mr. Farren Wares & not feeling able to keep it myself afterkin Kennon treated me as he did I sold it to James for $125.00. The Gold Chain belonged to Mr. & I considered it worth $10 which makes the $135.
