he lives. I think it was one day this week. I was going by his house, and I stopped — he was making a fence and I stopped and talked to him. And we were talking over this matter, and he spoke of this circumstance.

Have you ever heard any other guard officers or employees of this prison state that he had ever been ordered by any officer or employee of this prison to whip, strap or lash a convict, if so, who?

Well, I am under the impression that Mr. McDougal, the captain of the night watch, told me one evening that he had had orders from somebody — he said from headquarters — that is, that is my impression that he said from Headquarters.

Are there any other cases? I don't think that there are. That is all that I know of.

Did Captain McDougal tell you of any? Yes sir, he didn't, he didn't say no.

Mr. Reed, the Board of Commissioners now desire you to state to them if you know or have an impression that there has been any punishment inflicted upon any convict within the last four years which you consider brutal or un eralled for. If so, state what it is.

That is a good many last gentlemen. It would take me some time to answer it. I don't know that I can recollect these cases. I can recollect cases of re-Somehow I felt paid. I heard sounds to think of food, want to take us a hand.

But I thought, maybe I could live. I just need to know why I was there, where I was, and what I was doing.

My mind was confused. I was unsure of my present location. I wondered, did I need to take an action or was I just supposed to wait?

If I needed to take an action, I was unsure of what to do. I felt lost and confused, not knowing where to go or what to do.

Tel Aviv, my city. It was always the same. I felt it was my home. But I was not sure. I did not know what to do.

I felt lost,也不知道 what to say. I did not know what to do. I felt like a stranger in my own city.
cent date better than I can cases further back, and then it would look as though I was trying to screen somebody and throw it on to other parties probably, and I would rather not.

We insist upon an answer to the question.

If I have got a case, I will have to. I know there has been. I can say that—that is, that I thought it was recalled for what cases, and in what manner you considered them inhuman or brutal. Commence, if you please, as recent cases, if any.

I do know. There is one case and that is Henry Roddick, a convict, and I know about it is what I heard. I don't know what I want your knowledge first.

He was brought to the solitary from the east cell probably a year and a half or two years ago; it may be three years— I can't say for wanting bread; I think that was the charge. I am not sure as to that, but I think it was because he brought a lot of bread with him to the solitary and he was compelled to eat it in the solitary. It seems he took up too much bread to his cell and he was forced to eat it in solitary, and he was struck with a case several times by Mr. Sleeper, the Assistant Deputy during the time he was eating the bread. He refused to eat it and he was compelled to eat...

it in that way. I saw Mr. Sleeper strike him with a cane; he struck him on the fingers, and I don't know but he struck him on other parts of the body. I think he did on the arm or somewhere; I don't know how many times, but it was more than once.

Q. Did he knock him down?

A. No, he didn't knock him down. He simply struck him on the hands and arms with the cane for refusing to eat the bread.

Q. Did the convict attack the Assistant Deputy Warden.

A. What occurred in that cell during this evening?

A. There is another statement I want to make in regard to this case: Mr. Sleeper said in bringing the man from the east cell house that he had turned
I am not sure what I am doing. It seems like a task that requires calmness and patience. I think I need more time to understand the situation. I will try to attend today's meeting at the institute. I am not sure what work I will do or where it will lead. I am not entirely sure of my role or how I can contribute to the project. I think it is important to be clear about my responsibilities and the expectations. I want to make sure that I am doing my best to contribute and learn as much as possible. I think it is important to stay focused and persistent. I believe that with hard work and determination, I can make a difference and contribute to the project. I need to work on my weaknesses and improve my skills. I want to be part of something meaningful and successful.

The way I looked at it

I thought he was a little

Yes sir.

Was that all that was done in that case?

In that case, yes sir.

Warden McCloughry. In that case did Mr. Klepper strike the man as you considered it, hard enough to hurt him?

Oh no, he just about him on the hands for not eating the bread. Of course it hurt him some... In your opinion, did he strike him hard enough at the time to do him any injury?

No, I don't think it would do him any permanent injury.

Did it leave any marks?

I don't recollect whether there were any marks or not. I can't recollect. That is the way I will answer the question and the only way.
Do that the most recent case?

A: No sir, that is not. That is one of the cases, Commissioner C.W. Jones. Now, relate, in any other case, what it was. State them as they now occur to your mind, as being the most outrageous.

A: There was another convict that worked, I think, in the yard, at the time it occurred. He was reported. I think for not doing his work, and his head was another, and he had been a troublesome man—a man we had had considerable trouble with. His name was Thomas Carroll. He was sent to the solitary, and he was ordered in iron and put in iron, and I am not sure whether he was in one day or two, but he
