was taken out on account of this swelling, I think, on his head: it was spoken of afterwards—I am not sure whether he was taken to the hospital that day or the next day, but he died a couple of days afterwards. I don't know what you know of that punishment.

Q: That is the circumstance: the man's head being swollen in that way.

Q: Do you know anything about how his head came to be swollen?

A: I heard the doctor say it was an abscess I think. I heard someone say that; I am not sure whether it was the doctor or not.

Q: Caused by what?

A: Well, I can't say the cause.

Q: What did you hear it was caused by?
There are two men at noon. I think he will never tell. It is not true that he is dead. His name was B. in the first place. I want to see him. I am told that he is dead. This is just what I want to see.

Some quiet beat grows ever more; the world will wake to find the shoreless year. I can only say that, as I am thinking by myself, quid pro quo won't go very well, and needs and need not need.

Willingness it is more foolish to believe in. I think I should say so. But pros and cons have been

was an accident.
You have stated to the Board of Commissioners and they have asked you if you knew of any cases of brutal or inhuman conduct,
and you now state this case. I now wish to ask you in what way was inhumanly or brutally treated, or is he perhaps being avenged
or him being put in irons
that is all.
Warden McLaughry. Where was
it?
A I can't give the date.
Commissioner W. W. Jones. About
how long ago?
A It was probably seven or eight months ago; I don't know the exact time. W.
Maysiaw, the Deputy Warden, ordered him put in irons.
Can you refresh your memory as to the time from looking at the punishment record?

And could by looking at that one in the office, but I don't know anything about this book here. (indicating)

Plate what you know about the punishment record.

And I know that the record in this case was erased over here in our punishment book that we have for reference in the Deputy's office. It was erased by Deputy Mayhen.

Warden McClaughry. When this convicted Carroll came to the solitary with his head swollen up, was he struck or maltreated in any way by any officer of the prison?

Not that I know of, sir.
Dear Mom,

I hope this letter finds you well. I've been meaning to write for a while, and I'm finally getting around to it.

I had a bit of trouble with the printing last night. I left the printer on, and it seems like it got stuck on some old documents. I had to remove them and start over. I hope I didn't cause any trouble.

I also had a bit of a mishap with the new computer. It seems like it's a bit slow compared to my old one. I'm working on getting used to it.

I hope you're doing well. I miss you and can't wait to see you soon.

Love,

[Signature]
He was just put in irons.
Yes sir, he was just put in irons.
His head was swollen from some disease, you understood.
I understood afterwards it was from an abscess.
Deputy Marden Mayhew. Did you call my attention to it?
This was after the man died that I understood it was an abscess.
Did you call my attention to the fact that it was swollen?
It was when he was released.
And I released him because his head was swollen?
Yes sir.
Marden McClaughry. Did you notice that his head was swollen when he came in to the hospital?

9. Did you call the attention of any officers to that?

a. I can't say whether I spoke to the deputy about it or not.

Commissioner O. M. Jones, would you identify the punishment record over in the deputy marshal's office, if seen?

a. I would say yes sir.

g. Do this the record?

a. That is the record.

9. You have stated that there has been an erasure made in that book. Please state to the Board of Commissioners when and where, and call their attention to it.

a. This (indicating) is the one. It was scratched over in that shape. The number of Carroll's punishment was 789 - I put in punishment November 17th.

9. What you know about that erasure, if anything?
10. What I know about it is this: The Deputy ordered the convict that had charge of the books to make that erasure.

11. For what purpose, if any.

12. I looked at it in this way— I don't know — I can't testify for what purpose, but I thought it was on account of the man's dying as he did.

13. That is only your impression.
14. That is all.

was taken to the hospital right away.

God knows how long was the mean in solitary?

I can't say as to that. I think he was put in one day and a card made out the next. In making out punishment cards we generally make them out the day after the mean is received in solitary. If he is received in the evening we make them out the next morning, but if a man is received any time after dinner, we make them out the next morning.

What day was he received?

I can't tell; all I have to go by is this book. Can you tell from that?

I can tell the day he was put in punishment.

Well, when was that?
