I recollect that you told me he strangled and that you thought he was almost dead. I think that is what you told me. Didn't I say I thought it was dangerous to use the gag? And I remember rightly you did.

being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by Commissioners A. W. Jones.

What is your name?
A. W. Heibe.

What position, if any, do you occupy in this prison?
I am prison physician.

What knowledge you have, if any, of the death of the convict, Levi Reed.
I will write a statement in the commencement. This convict I saw in the morning about 8 o'clock—it was on Tuesday, May 7th—in solitary in punishment cell.

Upon inquiry, I found that he had been fighting with some other convict and therefore was in punishment. He was hand cuffed and his... arms passed through the bars of the door. I enquired about his health, felt his pulse and ascertained that he was in a good healthy condition. I then left him and went around to the other men in punishment. At about nine o'clock in the evening of the same day, I was called to come here in a hurry. I obeyed the summons, and learned that this convict was dead. He died in the cell of the solitary. I learned no particulars - how he came to his death. Then I advised with the Deputy Warden and concluded to send a notice to the Coroner to hold an investigation. I carried a letter to him myself in company with Doctor Dripps, and stated to him that the man died.
suddenly and the cause of his death was not known to me, and that he had better come down in the morning and make an investigation. The next morning the coroner, Coroner and Doctor McBride came down. Upon investigating the case a little it was concluded by the officers of the prison to have him make an investigation, but as no one was present Major McClaughry being absent it was concluded it would be best to wait until he arrived. I sent word a dispatch to Major McClaughry, who was then, as I was informed, in Kartakes, and stated that his presence was wanted here immediately on business connected with the penitentiary. These pen-Wenner, Secretary Jones and Commissioner Jones, and Major McClaughry arrived that night, as I understood, and in the morning it was talked over, and the Commissioner, Jones, as well as the warden, insisted and desired a very thorough investigation to find out the cause of the death of this convict, and it was concluded in the first place to hold a post mortem examination, and if not natural causes could be found, it might not be necessary then perhaps to have further investigation. I myself refused to make a post mortem examination as being an officer of this prison. The Coroner selected Doctor Dougal and Doctor McBride to make the post-mortem. The post-mortem examination was carefully made in my presence, and in the presence of Doctor Mr. Brooke, Doctor Driggs, who assisted, Doctor William Dougall, Doctor Layman, Mr. Leggett and Menden, the State's Attorney, and part of the time, the Deputy. Menden, Mr. McClung, and Mr. Jones were present during the post-mortem examination. The conclusion of the physicians, which coincides with my own opinion, was that the cause of death was apoplexy of the lungs, which has been caused in my opinion, or in their opinion, as they expressed it, by an insufficiency of air entering the lungs, which had for Dear [Recipient],

I hope this letter finds you well. I wanted to write to you to say how much I appreciate your continued support and guidance.

Your insights have been invaluable to me, and I feel that my work has improved significantly since I started working with you. I am particularly grateful for the time you took to mentor me and for the patience you showed in helping me develop my skills.

I understand that you have a lot on your plate, but I also want to express my appreciation for the time you dedicate to me. I feel that I have grown both professionally and personally through our interactions.

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to make our collaboration even more effective. I am committed to making the most of our time together and to achieving the best possible results.

Thank you for everything you do.

Sincerely,
