Das war so ein toller Abend. Ich habe mir eine Party geplant und alles war perfekt. Die Musik passte perfekt zu der Stimmung und alle hatten viel Spaß. Ich war so stolz auf mich.

Es war ein wunderbarer Abend, der mich so glücklich gemacht hat. Ich freue mich auf den nächsten.
only way to bring him. In those cases I have done it and have taken particular pains to see that the man was examined night and morning, I think that both of the physicians will sustain it.

Commissioner Delaney, is the strap or whip one of the modes of punishment adopted and practiced by the prison officials, or is not such punishment expressly prohibited? It is not, sir, it is expressly prohibited by law and by the prison officials. Commissioners, A. V. Jones. Do you believe that Major M. Laughter, the warden of this institution, under any circumstances, authorize or allow the whipping of any convict with a lock or strap of any

Dear [Name],

How are you doing? I want to check in with you. I hope things are going well with you and your family. I am writing to ask if you have had any updates about the situation in [Location].

I heard that the [Event] is still ongoing, and I am concerned about the safety of those involved. I wonder if you have any information you can share about how people are coping and what measures are being taken.

Please keep me informed if there are any developments. I want to offer any help I can in these difficult times.

Best regards, of each of those days. They are usually put in irons about seven o'clock in the morning and they are let out about half past five, or a quarter of an hour earlier. That is the course that has been taken so far.

I'd like to call your attention to the case of a man, as an example here — the case of John White, number 9750, that abode shop man. Refuses to work, and he is reported as four days in solitary and four days in irons.

He stayed in irons every day when he was in solitary from seven in the morning until half past five or a quarter to six at night. I call a day a working day. Really a day is 24 hours. If I should Keep a man 6 hours in irons, I should call it a day. If he is in irons at all through the day at all, I should call it a day in irons. That is the reason I have made my record since I commenced. I can refer you to the cell house Keepers, W. R. Reel, or any one that is connected with it.

When you have had occasion to keep a man in irons day and night consecutively, I understand you to say that you had never kept him in irons longer than two days and two nights consecutively.

I didn't say that. I don't know of any case with our reference to the boot when you kept a man in
I wish to make a speech on the subject of war. War is a result of greed and hate. It is a terrible thing that has been going on for far too long. I believe that we should find a way to end this madness. We should seek peace and unity. Let us work together to build a better world.
serious at night, did you consider it an aggravated case.

I certainly did consider it an extreme case, or I should not do it. The cases are very rare.

When you leave a man in vino a day and a night consecutively, how many times would he be let down during that 24 hours?

As often as he calls for the guard, but ordinarily two or three times in a day, in the morning, at noon to eat his lunch, or between eleven and twelve when the solitary food is given out and again at night before leaving the solitary.

I want it understood here, if you please, if the man was convicted... there and he was two days in punishment on bread and water, as the card shows, and he stayed two days in irons, if it was a case where he was kept one night all night for being drunk I can't call it any more than two days, can I? If he should be kept the twenty-four hours it is not but a day in the eyes of the law, and I cannot make the record any other way. If I should produce or you thought it necessary to get up the reports, the face of it will show the number of hours the man was in irons, I will count the hours and make them distinct, but the law does not make any

9. Do you remember the case of Michael Ryan, to which Mr. Reed made allusion in his testimony?

a. Yes sir.

9. Did you hear Michael Ryan gagging at that time or did not you come into the solitary while Michael Ryan was in a condition of fainting or strangulation from the effects of the gagging as it has been described by Mr. Reed?

a. Yes sir, where he was crying to.

9. Did you say, in reply to Mr. Reed's statement that he has killed Ryan, did you make the remark that it was a good thing, or something to that effect, that it did not make any difference?
