

J. W. Arnold
his Secy of Divison

55
3 Day.

Thursday - had gun - & yet the result was not decided.
Friday, Cannon, & Northern position was to ~~triumph over~~ ^{to} Cannon with Victory the three days struggle.

Early in the morning - a file of Soldiers marching slowly to the rear, leaving ~~twelve~~ upon a stretcher - to the rear, the brave Licker. Yesterday leading his cops with the dark, & I find for which he was undistinguished.
to cry - with his right leg amputated, grim, & stoical, his cap drawn over his face, with a cigar in his mouth.

The ^{cannon} morning opened at daylight with artillery. at dawn Genl. Sherman made an attack on Evell. then it will be remembered in
