Jos N. Barrett

Dear Sir,

I have examined the records and find nothing giving the maiden name of Abraham Lincoln's mother who was killed in 1784. I find several transfers of real estate from Mordecai Lincoln to Mary his wife to various persons in 1846-47 nothing more, also the Ministers return of marriage of "the" Lincoln + Nancy Hanks the father + mother of the lamented President who were married in 1809. There is no settlement of estate or Probating of wills to show the

Dear Sir,

I herewith send you the transcript of sale of land made by Mordecai Lincoln as follows:

Mordecai Lincoln & Mary his wife sold to John Kelly 103 acres 37 poles of land in Washington County, Ky. on the north of Cartwrights Creek for the sum of Twenty pounds of Dale Dec 7th 1800.

Dec 7th 1800 same number acres and same price.

Mordecai Lincoln & Mary Lincoln his wife sold to Michael Haynes 300 acres of land in Washington County, Ky. on the east of Bech Fork & Cartwrights Creek for the sum of Two hundred pounds of Dale Feb 4th 1802.

28th June 1803 Mordecai Lincoln legal heir of Abraham Lincoln conveyed to Mr. Womack 500 acres in Pendleton County, Ky. patented in the name of Abraham Lincoln for 5 shillings.

In regard to Mordecai Lincoln representing this County I have no date to go by. But I remember of hearing my uncle Hon Judge Paul C. Booker remark to some hot heads when Abraham Lincoln was first elected President.
That he did not know Abraham Lincoln but if he was as good a man as his uncle Mordcai Lincoln who I served with in the Legislature of Ky you need have no fears. I do not know what year the方形 if I did I might find it in some of the old acts of the Legislature.
Abraham Lincoln the father of Mordcai 4 Grand father of President Lincoln was the last white man killed by the Indians in this county and his powder horn & bullet pouch remain in the Museum in Lexington. Hoping my remarks may serve you in your undertaking.

I remain respectfully,
Mr. T. Crooker,
Clerk Washington Co Court.
