

Treasury Department.

March 3, 1864

My dear Sir,

The War Dept. is doubtless better apprised of the designs of the enemy than the writer of the enclosed letter: as he is an intelligent gentleman & reliable I think it best to credit to you.

Yours Very truly,
S. P. Mason

The President

Treasurer's Department

March 2, 1892

My dear Sir,

The enclosed papers are for you.

After approval of the Board of the company.

For the water of the water works.

A fee is on all papers forwarded.

Yours truly,

Jr.

Wm. H. H. H.

Wm. H. H.

The Board