

My dear Sir,

The enclosed documents are from Mr. Geo. Willis, of Pensacola, who had applied to be appointed the Navy Agent at that post.

I know Mr. Willis intimately, and, feeling great interest in his welfare, recommend him to your kindness as one on whose integrity, intelligence, and industry entire reliance can be placed.

I am, very respectfully,

Yr. friend & servant,

C. M. Dallas.

29. Mar. 1845.

The Honble

Genl. Bancroft

W. W. W.

My dear Sir

The enclosed documents are from the Wells, of Providence, who had applied to be appointed the new agent at that post. I thank you for Wells' interest, and feeling great interest in his welfare, recommend him to your friendship as one on whose integrity, intelligence, and ability entire reliance can be placed.

I am, my dear Sir,
Yours friend & servant
C. C. Welch.
2d. Nov. 1842

The Honorable
Genl. Hancock
W. H. H.