Mrs G. C. Smith,

Dear Madam,

Accept my grateful acknowledgments for your very kind letter and for your consideration in ordering a copy of "Woman in sacred song" to be sent to me.

I would owe you a debt of gratitude for your performance of the laborious task of collecting from so many periods and countries, The testimony of woman to our Blessed Redeemer.

Woman, look at the cross and first at the Sepulcher has been the mainstay of of Christianity and its first and best teacher of the morality and piety which inspired in childhood, may be obscured by the gathering ashes of a fiery after life, but lives and burns whenever some great trial awakes profoundest emotion

Again let me thank you for the kindness shown to myself and for the benefit conferred upon humanity.

Very respectfully
Yours,

Jefferson Davis
