

1868
L. H. Reavis Editor of Tribune

D

AM. PHOTO-LITHOGRAPHIC CO. N.Y.

New York, February 3, 1868.—DEAR SIR:
I can not tell yet whether Ben Wade will consult me as to the formation of his Cabinet. I know well that volunteered advice on such a point is never regarded. I await the moving of the waters before I put in my
oar. Yours,
HORACE GREELEY.

New-Y

Tribune.

New York, ~~Feb.~~ Apr. 3, 1868,

Dear Sir:

I cannot yet
judge whether Ben Wade will consult me as to the formation of his cabinet. I know well that volunteered advice on such a point is never regarded. I await the moving of ^{the} waters before I put in my oar.

Yours,

Horace Greeley

L. H. Reavis, Esq.
St. Louis, Mo.

125. GREELEY. (HORACE). Editor, Presidential candidate; etc. A.L.S. (in full)
1 full p 8vo. New York Tribune, N. Y., Apr. 3, 1868; to L. H. Reavis, St. Louis.
This is a "classic".
"I can not tell yet whether Ben Wade will consult me as to the formation of his CABINET. I know well that volunteered advice on such points is never regarded. I AWAIT THE MOVING OF THE WATERS BEFORE I PUT IN MY OAR."
This is a gem. A newspaper clipping quoting the letter accompanies..... $7.50

Sten-Hark
Cribbans

Jan 21st 1882

I cannot get any more practice with the pen to the
M. J. L. L.
The
The

Harold
The

