

THOMAS HANKS' PATENT FOR 530-ACRES
ADJOINING LAND OF COLONEL RICHARD LEE
IN VIRGINIA
1663

Planks 530

Know all whomeas this now know you that the said ^{of} Wm Starbuck Esq: Governor of the said County of find hundred and thirty three of land in New Kent County & on the branch of the plantation beginning at the Church at the head of the valley of the said land being West North West $\frac{1}{4}$ West 530 poles to the Church by following the same then South South West $\frac{1}{4}$ South 160 poles to a white oak by the Marshy branch thence East South East $\frac{1}{4}$ East 530 poles to the red oak thence N. N. E $\frac{1}{4}$ North 160 poles to the Church where it first began the said land being and to the said Planks by transportation of the same to the said to hold of the said Esq: in paying of the provided of Date the 11th of April 1663
 Phill: Martin Henry Benson Esq: Towns Jos: Gregory
 Wm Gray Ralph: Hubbard Math: Abell Sam: Jentiffe
 John Wood: Francis Smith Jure facte

11-6

THOMAS HANKS PATENT FOR 530 ACRES
Adjoining Land of Colonel Lee

Virginia Land Office, Richmond.

E 223

4 1/2