New York, April 5, 1875

My dear Sir: I presume that I shall be able to lecture in Troy next season.
My charge will be $125, and if I engage tickets for you I shall deduct for no one else, in Troy.

Very truly
Yours,
S. G. Hallam

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher due to its orientation and fading. It appears to contain several lines of cursive script, possibly including a name and some descriptive or narrative text.
