

Morton and Ribbey, Attys. at Law,

Centerville Ind., Sept. 19th 1860.

Jas. M. Parrott, Esq,
Cincinnati, Ohio,

Dear Sir:— I regret that your Reporter failed to get off so as to go to Middletown, but if you could spare him to go to Fort Wayne, on the 26th he could report Judge Morton, from there. You may think that we are anxious about this but it is our anxiety about our State in October.
Hastead offered to send a reporter to Fort Wayne, but we did not care about their doing so, as the Gazette, has twice the influence in our state, The Commercial is a regular practical sheet, and Hastead a Locofoco.

If you can do so, I would be glad and if you cannot send one to Fort Wayne look over his appointments and see where you could send one

Yours in the cause

W. R. Hollonay.

Boston and Liberty, 21st Nov. 1852

Dear Sir,

Mr. [Name]

[Faded text]

W. P. Hall
April 19, 1850

[Extremely faint and mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]