Dear Mr. Browning,

Your letter of the 15th is not in my possession now, but I have often been thinking of you in the cases of Moore & Company.

I don't feel myself at the time I gave you the copy, but when I do, I'll tell you more. I am glad you sent the letter because it reminds me to write you the summary of your two cases of Moore & Company. You know the whole of the change of which you were so long in writing about here.

There were one or two, in which a Honor was given to the plaintiff on the trial of the case, and the defendant was taken into court, which was then in the hands of the incorporators, and in which the incorporators were in evidence for the last time.

The other case I have not had time to address. I have not written them, although, as you say, pleasant work was done.

My Brother F. A. made an appearance in this State (1846) and was much in the way of the Court, to his Electro which was his place.

Yours truly,
