

Springfield, March 8. 1853.

Dear Linder—

The change of events prevents my attending the Edgar court this Spring, and perhaps generally hereafter— There is a little Ejectment case from Bloomfield, in which the name of Davidson figures, but in which a couple of men by the name of Bailey are interested; and for defending which I have been paid a little fee— Now I dislike to keep their money without doing the service, & I also hate to disgorge; and I therefore request of you to defend the case for me; & I will, in some time, do as much a favor for you— Write me whether you can do it—

Yours as ever,
A. Lincoln

