Mr. L. Benson

Dear Sir

Just returned called on Mr. Benson He remains in poor health another day or two is in bad but they have him under

Peace Bond for good behavior. He will do well <sup>and</sup> work in the new factory

He is under a $3000 bond his appearance is stout, signed Contract of the best men in the vicinity

They turned out with full force and all are sympathetic with your brother of course you will do the best business that you can get in now it comes under your hand of Yours truly H. Lincoln
