Dear Sir

Your note of the 1st inst., together with a very substantial and handsome overcoat which accompanied it by Express, were duly received by me, and would both have been acknowledged sooner but for the multifarious demands upon my time and attention.

Permit me now to thank you sincerely for your elegant and valuable New Year's Gift, and the many kind expressions of personal confidence and regard contained in your letter.

Dear Madam
I have the honor to receive of you the 10th inst.

Your letter of the 10th inst.
together with a very interesting letter from your mother which I have it by I have not only received by me, but would like to have been accompanied but for the unfortunate circumstances of my mother's illness.

I must now be to have trouble for your health and well the first of the many that I have of your affection and regard continue

in your letter
I am with best affection
Your affectionate son
