

Head Quarters Armies of the United States,

City-Point, April, 2. 8⁴⁵ P.M. 865.

Lieut. General Grant.

Allow me to tender to you, and all with you, the nations grateful thanks for this additional, and magnificent success. At your kind suggestion, I think I will visit you to-morrow.

A. Lincoln

AS the news of successive victories forecast the ENDING of the WAR , PRESIDENT LINCOLN
sent a telegram to GENERAL GRANT.

“ALLOW me to tender to you, and all with you,
the NATION'S grateful thanks for this additional,
and magnificent success.”
